Sheffield, the great seat of cutlery and other hardware manufactures, and the capital of a parish of its own name, and of the ancient, but not very clearly defined, Liberty of Hallamshire, is a large and populous market-town and borough, covering, for a considerable extent, the abrupt declivities, the gently sloping banks, and the boldly swelling hills which rise in picturesque disorder near the conflux of the rivers Don and Sheaf, and are themselves encompassed and overlooked by such a proud amphitheatre of verdant hills, that there is scarcely a street in the town from whence the country cannot be seen, nor an eminence in the vicinity that does not command a beautiful panoramic view of the town and suburbs; though the distant prospect is often obscured by clouds of curling smoke emitted from a multiplicity of noisy maufactories, and a dense mass of dwellings,—amongst which are seen from the eastern summits, the meandering streams of the Don, the Sheaf, and the Porter, which here unite and nearly encompass the greater part of the town, after receiving the mountain streams of the Rivelin and Loxley from the north west, and supplying the dams or reservoirs of numerous grinding wheels, forges, &c., which, like natural lakes, form beautiful features in the varied scenery of this neighbourhood; where the lovers of the picturesque may see close and well wooded valleys with the bare scar occasionally peeping through the foliage; hills appearing behind other hills,—some bearing fine masses of wood, and others studded with cheerful villas; and views of wonderful extent, embracing many objects which are associated with events of historical importance:—Indeed, we know of... no other large manufacturing town that has in its vicinage such a fine display of the softer graces of landscape, nor that affords to its industrious inhabitants a more enchanting variety of sylvan and pastoral walks. It holds a central situation betwixt Hull and Liverpool, and Leeds and Nottingham, and is situated in the South division of the Wapentake of Strafforth and Tickhill, and in the West-Riding of Yorkshire, bordering upon Derbyshire, and near the eastern side of that high and mountainous tract which has been called the English Appennines, and which extends southward from Westmorland and Craven, but is here (after leaving the Peak) fast subsiding into the fine champaign country that extends to Doncaster, Thorne, &c. In ecclesiastical matters, Sheffield is included in the deanship of Doncaster, in the archdeaconry of the West-Riding, and in the diocese of York. It lies nearly at an equal distance from the eastern and western Oceans, in 53 deg. 23 min. North latitude, and 1 deg. 29 min. west longitude,—being 162 miles N.N.W. of London.

The PARISH OF SHEFFIELD is co-extensive with the Borough, and abounds in wood and water, and in those important mineral bodies,—coal, ironstone, gritstone, freestone, flagstone, clay, &c. &c. It comprises 22,371 acres of land, divided into the six townships, enumerated in the following Table, from which it will be seen that it had 111,091 inhabitants in 1841; though in 1811, it had only 53,231. It may now be estimated at more than 120,000 souls, of whom about 110,000 live in the town and its immediate suburbs, which embrace seven-eights of the buildings and population of the townships of Ecclesall Bierlow and Brightside Bierlow, and more than half of those of Nether Hallam.

The following enumeration of the six Townships of the BOROUGH AND PARISH OF SHEFFIELD, shews their territorial extent; the Annual Value of their land and buildings, as assessed to the Borough Rate in 1844; and their population at six different periods, from 1736 to 1844:

* The Population of Nether and Upper Hallam was included with Ecclesall-Bierlow, in the census which was taken in 1736, by order of the Church Burgesses, preparatory to presenting a petition to Parliament, to make St. Paul's Church parochial.

† Brightside Township is in the North, and all the others in the South Division of Strafforth and Tickhill.

‡ The 111,091 souls in 1841, comprised 54,884 MALES, and 56,207 FEMALES. The number of HOUSES in the Parish, in July 1841, was 26,203; of which, 22,770 were inhabited; 3,239 unoccupied; and 194 were building. The number of houses in 1831, was only 15,045; but in 1831, they had increased to 19,713, including 465 building, and 914 unoccupied. The great number of unoccupied houses in 1841, was chiefly attributable to the extraordinary mania for building, which existed in the years 1835 and 1836, during a season of unparalleled prosperity, which was followed by a long period of commercial depression. The return of Sheffield township in 1841, included 693 persons in the Sheffield Union Workhouse, the Infirmary, and Shrewsbury Hospital; and 147 in the Gaol and Prison. The return of Ecclesall Bierlow included 181 persons in the Ecclesall Union Workhouse; 54 in the Gaol; and 204 in Wesley College. The Brightside Bierlow return included 134 persons in the Workhouse, but the in-paupers of this township are now sent to the Sheffield Workhouse. (See page 17.) The return of Nether Hallam included 57 persons in Crookesmoor Workhouse, (now disused;) and 132 soldiers, and 71 other persons in the Barracks.

The History of Sheffield is long and interesting, but is not within the province of this volume; all that is here intended, being a brief glance at its leading features, with a succinct account of the Public Institutions of the town and neighbourhood, followed by a copious Directory of the inhabitants. Before the Norman Conquest, the parish of Sheffield is supposed to have been attached to the Saxon churches of Treeton, Rotherham, and Hope; and the manor of Hallam was held by Earl Waltheof, from whose widow it passed to the great Norman baron—Roger de Busli, together with many other manors. Early in the reign of Henry I., Wm. de Lovetot held the barony of Hallamshire, of which his family made Sheffield the capital, —erecting there their chief residence, and building near it a church and hospital. In the reign of Richard I., the heiress of the Lovetot family carried Hallamshire in marriage to Gerard de Furnival, one of whose descendants obtained a charter for a market and fair at Sheffield, in 1296, and granted various privileges to his tenants; who, in the next century, had obtained some reputation for the manufacture of knives, which are mentioned by Chaucer, under the name of "Sheffield thwytles." Early in the 14th century, John Talbot, the first Earl of Shrewsbury, obtained Hallamshire in marriage with the heiress of the Furnivals, and his descendants held the barony till it passed with their heirs, about two centuries ago, to the illustrious family of the Howards, Earls of Arundel and Surrey, Dukes of Norfolk, &c., with whom it has since remained.

Sheffield Castle, the seat of the Norman lords of Hallamshire, was a large and strongly fortified mansion, on the banks of the Don, upon the site still called the Castle Hill. In the 15th century, they erected a summer residence in the centre of the Park, called the Manor, where Cardinal Wolsey lodged 16 days, in 1529; and where the unfortunate Mary Queen of Scots was confined nearly twelve years. There are still some remains of the Manor-House, but the site of the Castle is occupied by modern buildings. The bailiff of Hallamshire executes his office in all the manors near Sheffield, which belong to the Duke of Norfolk, as noticed with the Court of Requests at page 21. An Act of the 21st of James I., incorporated the Cutlery and other Workers in Iron, in Hallamshire, and extended their jurisdiction not only throughout that barony, but "everywhere within six miles compass of the same." By the Reform Bill, passed in 1832, Sheffield was raised to the rank of a Parliamentary Borough,—sending two members to parliament; and it was incorporated by Royal Charter, as a Municipal Borough, in 1843, as noticed at pages 27 to 31.

Under several Acts of Parliament, the River Don was made navigable to Tinsley, within three miles of Sheffield, in 1751; and the facilities of the manufactures of the town were further increased by the opening of a Canal from Tinsley to Sheffield, in 1819; and by the opening of the Sheffield and Rotherham Railway, on Oct 31st, 1838; the North Midland Railway, in 1840; and the Sheffield and Manchester Railway, in 1845. In the latter year, an Act was obtained for the Grimsby and Sheffield Railway; and application will be made in Parliament during the ensuing session, for Acts for making the direct London and York Railway; and direct lines from Sheffield to Barnsley, Wakefield, Lincolnshire, Chesterfield, &c., which, when completed, will make Sheffield a great central station, for the principal lines in England, instead of being at the distance of more than five miles from the main trunk to the north and south, as it is now.

Among other improvements now in contemplation are—the erection of a commodious Bridge across the Don, near the Iron Bridge and the Sheffield and Manchester Railway Station, and the formation of a direct road from it to the top of Snighill. It has been ascertained that upwards of 10,000 foot passengers cross the Iron Bridge daily, and the want of a carriage road across the river at this point, and another near Cornish Place, has long been felt.

No place has suffered more from the vicissitudes of trade than Sheffield.—The American War produced a state of considerable depression; and the town had only just recovered from the effects of that abortive effort to establish the principle of taxation without representation, when the Wars of the French Revolution came to plunge its inhabitants in still deeper distress. The town suffered much from the great commercial panics of 1825 and 1837; the latter of which was brought about chiefly by the over-speculations of the three preceding years, and its paralysing influence continued till 1843. Since then a season of prosperity has existed, which we trust will long continue, though it may, e'er long, be disturbed by the mania for railway speculation, which has for some time pervaded the country. The Trades' Unions, established by the operatives of the town and neighbourhood, for the purpose of preventing those ruinous reductions in wages and the price of goods, which often occur in times of depression, have long been a subject of complaint among the Manufacturers, who, in 1844, formed themselves into a Protection Society, for mutual defence against the intolerant dictation of the workmen, some of whom have, on several occasions, resorted to diabolical means for intimidation and the midnight destruction of property. We trust the men are now better informed, and that the annals of Sheffield will not again be stained by a repetition of these outrages. Mr. A. C. Branson is solicitor to the Protection Society. Among the joint-stock speculations of 1845, are two companies for establishing Cotton Mills in Sheffield, one proposing to commence business with a capital of £20,000, in £500 shares, and the other with £100,000, in £100 shares. The large central building of the Sheffield Workhouse, was the third cotton mill erected on the same site, after two conflagrations in 1792 and 1810. Soon after the latter year, its spirited, but unfortunate proprietors, were obliged to abandon the trade, and their newly erected mill remained unoccupied till it was purchased by the overseers of the poor for £7,500, in 1829. The Unions, to which Sheffield and several neighbouring parishes have been annexed by the New Poor Law Commissioners, are noticed at pages 17 and 18.

The Parish Church (St. Peter and the Holy Trinity,) is a large rectangular Gothic structure, nearly in the centre of the town. It is 240 feet long, and 130 broad, and has a tower in the centre surmounted by a lofty spire. The interior consists of a spacious nave, two side aisles, and a chancel; the latter of which is rich both in ancient and modern sculpture,—having the tombs of three Earls of Shrewsbury, and two beautiful productions of the chisel of Sir F. L. Chantry. The church was thoroughly repaired and repewed, between the years 1800 and 1806, and will now seat 2,000 persons. In the tower is a peal of 10 bells, a set of chimes, and an excelpictoresque acclivity of Sharrow Vale, well enclosed, beautifully laid out, and having in its centre a neat chapel. It is the property of a company of shareholders, and was opened July 30th, 1836, at the close of which year it had cost upwards of £13,000. Part of it is about to be consecrated for the use of members of the established church. About 30 family vaults, and 440 graves have been sold, and the number of interments, since the opening, is about 1,800. The Rev. W. B. Landells is the minister; Mr. A. Chadwick, secretary; and Mr. W. Four of them are under the care of the Infant School Society, connected with the Established Church, and are situated in Beet-street, Hermitage-street, Hoyle-street, and the Park. St. Paul's National School, in Charles-street, was erected in 1844.

The Free Grammar School is a commodious and handsome stone building, in Charlotte-street, erected by subscription, in 1825, in lieu of the ancient school which stood near the top of Townhead-street. It was founded by letters patent of James L., in 1604, and the Vicar and Church Burgess are the trustees. The endowment produces about £160 a year, of which £100 is paid to the master, and £50 to the usher, who are required to teach Latin and Greek gratuitously to 25 boys of the parish; but they pay three guineas each per annum for the other branches of learning; and the teachers are allowed to take other scholars. The Free Writing School, in School-croft, was founded by Wm. Birley, in 1715, and rebuilt in 1827. The master has from the endowment £350 per annum, for which he teaches 50 poor boys reading, writing, and arithmetic.

The Collegiate School, pleasantly seated on a gentle acclivity in the Vale of the Porter, near Broom Hall, was founded by a company of proprietors, with a capital of £3,000, raised in £25 shares, in 1835. It is a long and lofty building, with an elegant Corinthian portico in the centre, and has generally about 150 boarders. There are also about 170 who are subscribers only to the Library, which comprises more than 2,000 volumes. The buildings which it now occupies were purchased about five years ago, but as soon as the funds are sufficient, it is intended to take them down, and to erect on their site a handsome and commodious edifice. The building fund has been accumulated by subscription, and the profits of several Exhibitions and Public Entertainments, and in 1845, by the profits of a Bazaar. The present officers of this useful institution, are—Dr. Holland, president; Edw. Bramley, Esq., and Dr. Thompson, vice-presidents; Mr. John Fowler, honorary secretary; and Mr. H. A. This delightful place of recreation was opened June 29th, 1836, and cost its original proprietors upwards of £18,000, of which £3,600 was paid for the land. It was formerly in £20 shares; but was sold May 16th, 1844, to a new company of proprietors, for £9,000, to be raised in £5 shares, of which about 1,300 are already taken, and it is hoped that the remaining 500 will be disposed of before the lapse of another year. A yearly subscription is paid on each share for the admission of the bearer and family, and shareholders are allowed to sell their yearly tickets. About £6,000 of the purchase money has already been paid. The gardens are open daily, from morning till night, and on Sundays from one P.M. till dusk. The Town Burgesses’ Trust consists, like that of the Church Burgesses, of property held in trust, for the benefit of the town at large, and it now produces upwards of £1,600 per annum, of which £1,000 arises from Navigation shares, and more than £400 from land in and near the town. The trustees have, at various periods, expended large sums in widening the streets, and otherwise improving the town. In 1840, they extended Queen-street from Workhouse-croft to Scotland-street, and widened that part of Campo-lane between St. James’s-row and Lee-croft. In 1845, they widened part of Tripet-lane, by removing a row of old houses which formed one side of Red-croft. The present town trustees are—T. A. Ward, (town collector,) Wm. Battle, B. Withers, Wm. Fisher, Thos. Pearson, Jno. Rodgers, S. Hadfield, S. Bailey, M. Ellison, Joseph Levick, J. W. Hawksworth, and Wm. Vickers, Esqrs.

The Hospital of Gilbert, Earl of Shrewsbury, founded by that illustrious nobleman, in 1616, formerly occupied the site of the present Corn Exchange and New Haymarket, but the original buildings were pulled down in 1827, when the almspeople were removed to the present Hospital, which forms one of the handsomest establishments of the kind in the kingdom, and occupies an airy situation, on the brow of the hill overlooking Claywood, on the eastern side of the town, opposite the Cholera Monument, round which is a large plot of ground, laid out in public walks and shrubberies. The trusteeship and patronage of this hospital is vested with the Duke of Norfolk, and it now affords comfortable dwellings to 20 poor men, and 20 poor women, with a weekly allowance of 10s. to each of the former, and 8s. to each of the latter. They have also each a load of coals every three months, and a blue coat or gown once in two years. The founder directed that the inmates should be such as had “seen better days, and had been reduced by misfortune.” The Rev. Thos. Robinson is the governor & chaplain, and has a good house, and £40 a year.

Hollis Hospital, in Newhall-street, was founded in 1703, by Thomas Hollis, a wealthy merchant, of London, but a native of Sheffield, and a liberal and benevolent nonconformist. He purchased the first dissenting meeting house in Sheffield, called the New hall, and a house adjoining, which he converted into dwellings for 16 poor women, widows of cutlers, residing within two miles of Sheffield, or others connected with its trade.
In his will he made no provision for the maintenance of the Hospital, merely desiring that it might be continued, and this request was religiously fulfilled by his descendants. The annual income is about £980. Besides stipends to the ministers of the Upper, Nether, and Fulwood Chapels, and the Presbyterian ministers, and schoolmasters of Rotherham and Doncaster, seventeen almshouses receive each 7s. per week, and the governor a yearly salary of £60. The latter reads prayers to the almspeople, and conducts a School for the gratuitous instruction of 80 poor boys. The property of the charity is vested in 14 trustees, chiefly descendants of the founder. Richd. Solly, Esq., is the treasurer; and Mr. G. H. Hobson, governor.

The Charities, under the management of the Cutlers' Company, are—Thos. Hanby's, which yields £150 a year, to be distributed in clothes, and money, to poor and aged men and women; and Joseph Hudson's, consisting of an annuity of £8. 10s. for poor file strikers, at Christmas. The poor of Sheffield have about £140 a year from the bequests of Mary Parsons, Eliz. Parkin, and seven other donors, vested with various trustees; £100 a year from the Church Burgesses' Trust; £60 a year from Wm. Birley's charity, left in 1715, and vested with the Church Burgesses; and occasionally they have small distributions from the Town Burgesses' Trust. Various societies, for bettering the condition of the poor, are liberally supported by the contributions of the benevolent, who, in seasons of scarcity, inelecmeny, and want of employment, often dispense large sums in food and clothing, among the destitute inhabitants.

The Savings' Bank was established in 1819, and now occupies a neat stone building, in Surrey-street. They have several powerful engines, &c., and an able body of firemen. Mr. Brownell is the secretary; and Mr. John Wreaks, the collector. The Sheffield, Rotherham, and Chesterfield Fire and Life Office, at 25, Norfolk-street, was established in 1844, by a company of proprietors, with a capital of £200,000, in £20 shares. They have power to increase their capital to £500,000, and have already an efficient fire brigade, and two powerful engines, constructed on the most improved principles. The Directors, &c., are stated in the company's Advertisement, at a subsequent page, and Mr. Thos. Bell is the manager & actuary.

Sheffield Union comprises the four townships of Sheffield, Attercliffe, Brightside Bierlow, and Handsworth, which comprise an area of about 10,600 acres, and in 1841 had 83,076 inhabitants, of whom, 42,068 were males, and 43,008 females. Eight Guardians are elected yearly for Sheffield, two for Brightside, and one each for Attercliffe and Handsworth. The amounts of Poor Rates levied in the year ending March 1844, were as follows:—Sheffield, £29,917. 10s.; Attercliffe, £2,444; Brightside, £5,444; and Handsworth, £999. 18s.; but out of these sums were paid to the county rates, and for liquidation of debts, and the alterations at the gigantic Workhouse in Kelham street, which has recently been enlarged at the cost of more than £6,000, though it had previously room for more than 600 inmates. The brightest Workhouse, in Rock-street, is now disused, so that the in-paupers of the whole Union are sent to the Sheffield Workhouse, which had 632 inmates in July 1841; but for some time a season of prosperity has existed, and it has now only about half that number. ECCLESALL BIERLOW UNION comprises the seven townships of Ecclesall Bierlow, Nether and Upper Hallam, Norton, Totley, Dore, and Beauchief; the latter four of which are in Derbyshire. It had 31,628 inhabitants in 1841, and its average annual expenditure for the relief of the poor, during three years ending March 1837, 1841, and 1844, was respectively, £4,273, £5,349, and £7,979. A large and handsome Workhouse of freestone, with an elegant front in the Elizabethan style, was completed about two years ago by this Union, at the cost of more than £6,000, in lieu of the old one on Sharrow moor. It is pleasantly situated near Cherrytree hill, and has room for about 500 paupers. Its number of inmates in July 1843, was 381, and in July 1844, 279. The average number of paupers relieved quarterly, in the year ending March 1845, was 1,314 out, and 354 in-door. The weekly cost per head of the in-door poor is 2s. 5½d. for food, and 6½d. for clothing. Four Guardians are elected yearly for Ecclesall, two each for Nether Hallam and Norton, and one for each of the other four townships. Mr. William Firth is Union clerk and superintendent registrar; Mr. John Tasker, relieving officer and deputy superintendent registrar; John Yeomans, master; and Mary Marsh, matron of the Workhouse; Joseph Speakman, schoolmaster; Geo. Wilkinson, auditor; and the Rev. Richard Martin, of Dore, is the chaplain. The Registrars of Births and Deaths are—Messrs. W. T. Kidd, for Ecclesall Bierlow and Heeley; Richd. Furniss, for Upper Hallam, Dore, and Totley; John Wreaks, for Norton and Beauchief; and Wm. Birtles, for Nether Hallam District. Mr. Thos. Smith is assistant overseer for the townships of Ecclesall and Nether and Upper Hallam; and Mr. Wm. Travis is collector of poor rates for Ecclesall township, and has his office at 47, South-street.

The TOWN HALL, at the junction of Castle-street, Haymarket, and Waingate, is a neat stone fabric, which was built in 1808, and considerably enlarged in 1838, at the expense of the Town Trust. Here are held the Quarter and Petty Sessions, the Manor and Sheriff's Courts, Public Meetings, &c.; and on the lower floors are prison cells, and the offices, and lock up, of the Police. Petty Sessions were held here only on Tuesday and Friday, till the institution of the Municipal Corporation, but they are now held four days a week, or oftener when necessary. The Magistrates most regular in attendance are—the Mayor and his predecessor, W. J. Bagshawe, Esq., Wilson Overend, Esq., Rev. W. Alderson, Rev. Geo. Chandler, Rev. J. Hand, Henry Walker, Esq., and J. C. Athorpe, Esq. Earl Fitzwilliam, Lord Wharncliffe, and the Hon. J. S. Wortley, M.P., occasionally attend the Petty, and often preside at the Quarter Sessions. Mr. Albert Smith is clerk to the magistrates.

The IMPROVEMENT COMMISSIONERS were commonly called Police Commissioners, until the institution of the Municipal Corporation.
In 1818, "An Act for cleansing, lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the town of Sheffield," was obtained, and its powers extend to all parts of the town within the distance of three quarters of a mile round the Parish Church, and are entrusted to the execution of the Town Trustees, the Master and Wardens of the Cutlers' Company, and a number of Commissioners, of whom the following is the present list:—

Mr. John Staniforth is clerk to these Commissioners; Mr. W. H. Frith is their collector; and Mr. Thos. Raynor is the town surveyor. Their operations are confined to cleansing and lighting the streets; the police force and nightly watchmen being now under the management of the Town Council. They collected Rates in 1840, amounting to £6,226, and in the year ending June, 1843, to £3,667; the latter being for lighting and cleansing only. The salaries paid to the clerk, surveyor, and collector, in the latter year, amounted to £242. 12s.

TOWN COUNCIL:—As will be seen by the copy of the Royal Charter, at pages 27 to 31, the Borough of Sheffield was not Incorporated for Municipal purposes, till August 1843, though it might have received this distinction at an earlier period, had not a numerous body of the Burgesses opposed it. By this Charter, the borough is divided into nine wards, and placed under the control of a Town Council, consisting of a mayor, 14 aldermen, and 42 councillors, and invested with the powers of the Act passed in 5th and 6th of William IV., for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales. They have extended the lighting and watching districts so as to comprehend nearly the whole Borough, except Upper Hallam. The rateable yearly value of the lands and buildings now assessed to the watch and lighting rates is—In Sheffield township, £157,791; in Ecclesall, £33,455; in Brightside, £19,485; in Nether Hallam, £9,902; and in Attercliffe, £4,847;—producing, at 6d. in the pound, £5,584. 18s. 6d., the sum which was levied as a watch rate, in Oct. 1844, for the ensuing year. The rateable yearly value of property, assessed to the borough rate, in 1844, was as follows:—Sheffield, £163,493; Ecclesall, £41,711; Brightside, £29,186; Upper Hallam, £4,728; Nether Hallam, £15,600; and Attercliffe, £8,276; producing about £1,000, on an assessment of one penny in the pound. The two borough rates levied in 1844, amounted to £2,556, or something less than 2½d. in the pound, on the gross yearly rental of £262,988. The Police Force was transferred from the Improvement Commissioners to the Town Council, early in 1844, and probably, in a few years, they will surrender the remainder of their functions to the same body. In Feb. 1844, the Town Council fixed the salary of the Town Clerk (Mr. Edw. Bramley,) at £300 per annum; and appointed a night and day police force, at the cost, for the half-year, of £1,761: the watchmen being then 51 in number, with 8 superior officers, and the day police 12, with 4 superior officers. This force has since been increased to 63 watchmen, and 34 day policemen, with three inspectors, three police serjeants, and 5 patrol serjeants, all under the superintendence of Mr. Thos. Raynor, the high constable and town surveyor. The inspectors have 25s.; the serjeants 21s.; the patrol-serjeants 20s.; the day policemen 17s. to 18s.; and the watchmen 14s. to 15s., per week. Mr. Wm. Bland and Mr. James Wild, who had long served as constables for the township of Sheffield, have been appointed warrant officers, for attending the magistrates, and serving summonses in the borough, with yearly salaries of £150 each. The Chief Constable and Town Surveyor has £200 a-year from the Town Council, and £100 from the Improvement Commissioners. The Police Office is at the Town Hall, and the monthly and committee meetings of the Corporation are held in the Cutlers’ Hall; but the purchase or erection of a suitable building for a Council Hall is in contemplation. The motto on the common seal of the borough is “Deo adjuvante labor profitet.” The expenses charged to the borough for obtaining the charter, amounted to about £500, of which, £686 was paid out of the borough rates, and the remainder by subscription. The Town Council have hitherto declined applying for the privilege of a separate Court of Quarter Sessions for the Borough, though until they have this, the Home Secretary has refused appointing Borough Magistrates. The County Magistrates, of whom one of the most active, (W. Overend, Esq.,) is resident in the town, have concurrent jurisdiction with the Mayor and his predecessor, and hold adjourned Quarter Sessions here at the usual periods. The large sums, which the six townships of the borough pay yearly to the West Riding county rates, would, no doubt, be amply sufficient for the support of local courts, a borough gaol, a recorder, &c. The sums paid by the township of Sheffield alone to the county rates, amounted in 1828 to £1,825, and in 1842 to £2,575; and the total paid out of the poor rates of the six townships, averages more than £4,000 per annum. The number of Voters, qualified to vote for the parliamentary representatives of the borough, is about 4,000; and the Burgess Roll, containing the names of rate payers entitled to vote in the election of members of the Town Council, comprises only about 7,000, but ought to embrace more than 10,000, as the smallest tenements are assessed to the borough rates, which, in many cases, the owners of cottage property have been indiscreet enough to pay, leaving their low rented tenants unburthened with any local taxation, except that of the highways. A list of the First Town Council will be seen at page 31; and the present list is as follows:

TOWN COUNCIL. (November 9th, 1844.)

Mayor—Thomas Dunn, Esq., Richmond Hill.

The ALDERMEN are the same as at page 31. The first seven retire in 1846, and the others in 1849.

Councillors.

*Those marked thus , retire November 9th, 1845.

The first four Wards comprise Sheffield township, and the others are the Out-Townships.
The Highways of the township of Sheffield, are superintended by a "Board," consisting of 14 members, elected yearly, on the 25th of March. The streets, roads, and sewers of the township, have been greatly improved during the last ten years; but there are still some in a very neglected condition. The average annual expenditure of the township, for the repairs of the highways, from 1834 to 1842, was £8,348. 3s. 5d. The Office is at 40, Queen-street; John Southern and Edward Hallam, are the collectors; John Wheatley, clerk; and Mr. Wm. Lee, surveyor. Mr J. Buxton is collector of Highway rates for Ecclesall Bierlow; for which township, five surveyors are elected yearly.

The Court of Requests, for the Duke of Norfolk's Manor of Sheffield, is held at the Town Hall, every Thursday forenoon, and summonses are granted every Saturday. It extends its jurisdiction over the whole of the parishes of Ecclesfield, Handsworth, and Sheffield, except Ecclesall Bierlow. John Parker, Esq., is the steward; Michael Ellison, Esq., deputy-steward; Mr. Robt. Barker, clerk (office, Corn Exchange;) and Mr. Wm. Lionel Smiliter, is the gaoler and bailiff. The Gaol is in Scotland-street, and is now but thinly tenanted. On August 16th, 1844, about 80 prisoners were discharged, on petition, by order of the Court, under the Act for abolishing imprisonment for debts under £20; and on the 19th, the seven prisoners in the Ecclesall gaol were liberated.

A Court Leet, and view of frank-pledge, is held at the Town Hall, on the Wednesday in Easter week, at which inspectors of flesh, meat, fish, weights and measures, special constables, &c., are appointed:—Michael Ellison, Esq., is the manor-steward. Jas. P. Burbearry, Esq., is law clerk to the Commissioners of the Sheffield Markets; Mr. John White is clerk of the markets, and inspector of weights and measures; and Mr. Paul Bright is inspector of corn returns.

The Court of Requests, for Earl Fitzwilliam's manor of Ecclesall, is held every third Monday, at the Court House, which adjoins the Sheffield.

Gaal, in Tudor-street, Little Sheffield. Daniel Maude, Esq., of Manchester, is steward; Mr. T. W. Rodgers, of 16, Bank-street, deputy-steward and clerk; and William Greenwood, gaoler and bailiff.

The Barracks for cavalry, are on the Penistone-road, and were built in 1794. It is in contemplation to erect new barracks on a larger scale, and an eligible plot of land has been purchased by government for this purpose, a little beyond the present barracks.

The CUTLERS' HALL is a commodious building, in Church-st., with a handsome stone front, in the Corinthian style. It was built on the site of the old hall, in 1832-3, at the cost of £6,500, and has a dining hall 80 feet by 30, and an assembly room 53 feet by 25, with other commodious apartments, handsomely furnished, and decorated with a fine collection of paintings, including admirable portraits of the Vicar, the Duke of Wellington, Lord Wharncliffe, &c. The CUTLERS' COMPANY holds an annual festival here, on the first Thursday in September, and now consists of the following members:

The Market Places of Sheffield have been enlarged at various periods, under two acts of parliament, passed in 1784 and 1827. The Shambles, 100 yards long, and 40 yards broad, were finished in 1786, when the present Killing Shambles were also erected. The Green Market, between King-street and Castle-street, was formed in 1818, when the old gaol was taken down. The Corn Exchange, and the New Hay and Cattle Markets, were opened in 1830; and the New Fair Ground, soon afterwards. Two fairs are held yearly on the Tuesday and Wednesday in Trinity week, and on the 28th and 29th of November, for the sale of horses, cattle, cheese, &c. The weekly markets, on Tuesday and Saturday, are well supplied with provisions; and that on the former day, with corn, cattle, sheep, and swine. A market for earthenware is held every Tuesday, in Paradise square. The Ecclesall Bazaar, in South-street, is a market place, which was built by Earl Fitzwilliam, in 1827, but it is unoccupied, except the shops which front the street.

The Gas Works, at Sheaf bridge, were commenced in 1818, and finished Oct. 6th, 1819, by a company of shareholders, with a capital of £40,000, raised in £20 shares. There are four large gasometers here, and two others in Brown-street and Spring-street,—the works having been greatly enlarged since 1835. The New Gas Works, on Long-Island, between the river Don and the Canal, were built in 1836-7, by a company of proprietors, with a capital of £80,000, raised in £25 shares. Attached to them is a large gasometer behind Bow-street. These rival companies, after being some years in opposition, and reducing their charges from 10s. to 4s. 4d. per 1,000 cubic feet, found it their interest to consolidate themselves into one company, for which purpose they obtained an Act of Parliament, in 1844. Under this Act, they are styled “The Sheffield United Gas Light Company,” and they now supply their customers at the rate of 6s. 8d. per 1,000 cubic feet, subject to certain discounts in favour of large consumers.

WATER WORKS.—The town is abundantly supplied with water from the dams on Crookes Moor, and the great dam (50 acres) at Red-mires, but the charges are rather high, and the water not so pure as it might be if it passed through filtering-beds before it came to the inhabitants. The water-works were greatly extended and improved under an Act passed in 1830; and in 1845, the company obtained another Act for the purpose of increasing the supply of water at Red-mires, at the cost of about £10,000. The Company’s Offices are at 14, Division-street; Mr. J. T. Leather is the engineer; Mr. G. S. Greening, the collector; and Messrs. James Wheat and Albert Smith, are the law clerks. The ASSAY OFFICE is at 71, Fargate, and is open every Monday and Thursday. Mr. L. C. Sayles is the assay master. The EXCISE OFFICE is at 1, Hartshedd, and is open daily. John Baddock, Esq., of 7, St. George’s terrace, is the collector; Joseph Angus, clerk; Samuel Ellis, permit-writer; and James Tapper and Joseph Wilson, are the supervisors. The STAMP OFFICE is at 1, St. James’s-street, and John Brown, Esq., is the distributor. Mr. George Barker, of Sandon place, is surveyor of taxes for the town and neighbourhood. The POST OFFICE, after being shifted to various places, during the last twenty years, was removed to the foot of Angel-street, early in 1845; but the situation is not central, nor has the building the appearance of being the place of receipt and despatch, for the correspondence of a large commercial and manufacturing town of more than 100,000 inhabitants.

CHARTER OF INCORPORATION, FOR THE
BOROUGH OF SHEFFIELD,
GRANTED AUGUST 24th, 1843.

Victoria by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these presents shall come greeting—

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the first year of our reign, intituled—"An Act to amend an Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," it was enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales should petition his Majesty to grant them a Charter of Incorporation, it should be lawful for his Majesty by any such Charter, if he should think fit by the advice of his Privy Council, to grant the same to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such Charter, all the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament of the 5th and 6th years of the reign of his late Majesty—William the Fourth, intituled—"An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," whether such town or borough should or should not be a corporate town or borough; or should or should not be named in either of the schedules to the said Act for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it should please his Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by his Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition should be so considered; but such publication should not need to be by Royal proclamation. And, whereas, after the passing of the said Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of our reign, the inhabitant householders of the borough of Sheffield, in the West-Riding of the county of York, did petition us to grant to them, the said inhabitants, a Charter of Incorporation; and notice of such petition, and of the time when the same was ordered by us to be taken into consideration by our Privy Council was accordingly duly published in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition was so considered. And, whereas, afterwards, to wit, on the 20th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1841, our Privy Council did proceed to consider the said petition; and having since resumed the consideration thereof, have advised us to grant a Charter of Incorporation for the district comprised in the boundaries of the borough of Sheffield, in the said county of York, as the same were settled and determined by an Act passed in the session of Parliament of the 2nd and 3rd years of his said late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties and the limits of Cities and Boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament." WE, THEREFORE, as well by virtue of the powers and authorities vested in us, as by virtue of the powers and authorities given us by the said recited Act, passed in the first year of our reign, do hereby grant and declare, that the inhabitants of the borough of Sheffield, comprised within the district herein before described, and their successors shall be for ever hereafter one body politic and corporate in deed, fact, and name, and that the said body corporate shall be called the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Sheffield, and them by the name of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Sheffield into one body corporate and politic in deed, fact, and name, do for us, our heirs and successors, erect and constitute by these presents, and we do grant to the said body corporate, that by the same name they shall have perpetual succession, and be for ever hereafter persons able and capable in law to have and exercise, and that they shall have and exercise all the powers, authorities, immunities, and privileges which are now held and enjoyed by the several boroughs named in the said Act for regulating Municipal Corporations in England and Wales in the like manner, and subject to the same provisions, as fully and as amply to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the said borough of Sheffield had been included in the schedules to that Act annexed:—and we do hereby extend to the said inhabitants of the said borough, comprised within the district hereinbefore described, all the powers and provisions of the said Act for regulating Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and of all and every other Acts or Act of Parliament made and passed for altering, amending, or enlarging the same Act, and the powers and provisions thereof, or in anywise relating thereto;—and we further will, grant, and declare, that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgessess of the said borough of Sheffield and their successors, shall and may for ever hereafter have a common seal to serve them in transacting their business from time to time arising within the said borough;—and we further will, grant, and declare, that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgessess shall be able and capable in law to purchase, take, and acquire lands, tenements, hereditaments, and all other possessions whatsoever to any value, situate, lying, or being within the said borough—and also to purchase, take, and acquire lands, tenements, hereditaments, and all other possessions elsewhere out of the said borough, not exceeding the sum of ten thousand pounds by the year, to have and to hold the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgessess, and their successors for ever;—and we further will, grant, and declare that the Council of the said borough shall consist of a Mayor, 14 Aldermen, and 42 Councillors, to be respectively elected at such times and places, and in such manner, as the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors for the boroughs named in the schedules to the said Act for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales—except that the first Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors for the said borough shall be respectively elected at such times and in such manner as hereinafter mentioned;—and that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors, so to be elected, for the said borough of Sheffield, shall respectively have, exercise and enjoy all the powers, immunities, and privileges, and be subject to the same duties, penalties, liabilities, and disqualifications, as the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors for the several boroughs enumerated in the said Act for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, so far as the same are applicable to the said borough of Sheffield;—and we further will, grant, and declare, that the title and qualification of the Burgessess of the said borough of Sheffield shall be the same with regard to the said Borough as the title and qualification of the Burgessess of the Boroughs named in the said Act for Regulating Municipal Corporations in England and Wales are with regard to such boroughs, exactly as if the said borough of Sheffield had been included in the schedules to that Act annexed—and that all persons possessing such title or qualification, with respect to the said borough of Sheffield, shall be entitled to be placed upon the Burgess List hereinafter mentioned.

BYE LAWS,

FIXING THE FINES FOR NON-ACCEPTANCE OF OFFICE, &c.

At a Monthly Meeting of the Council of the Borough of Sheffield, held on Wednesday, the thirteenth day of March, 1844, in pursuance of Notice duly given, and Summonses duly served, two-thirds of the whole number of the Council being then and there present.

The following Bye Laws were then and there made, ordained, and declared by the said Council, in pursuance of the power in that behalf given by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales":—

I. That every person neglecting, or refusing to accept and take upon himself the office of Mayor of the said Borough, having been to such office legally elected, shall pay a fine of Fifty Pounds, to be applied as the law directs.

II. That every person neglecting or refusing to accept and take upon himself the office of Alderman, Councillor, Auditor, or Revising Assessor, of the said Borough, or Assessor of any Ward of the said Borough, having been to such office legally elected, shall pay a fine of Twenty-five Pounds, to be applied as the law directs.

III. That every Member of the Council being duly summoned, shall attend all Meetings of the Council, at the time fixed for meeting, or in default thereof, shall, for each default, pay a fine of 2s. 6d., unless in case of illness, or unavoidable absence from the Borough, to be proved to the satisfaction of the Council.

IV. That every Member (except the Mayor) of any Committee appointed by the Council, on being duly summoned, shall attend each and every Meeting of such Committee, at the time fixed for meeting, or in default thereof, shall, for each default, pay a fine of 1s., the non-attendance to be reported by the Chairman of the Committee, or the Town Clerk, to the Council, at their next Quarterly Meeting, when the Council shall declare such fines to have been respectively incurred, and thereupon the same shall be imposed and levied, unless such non-attendance shall have been caused by illness or unavoidable absence from the Borough, to be proved to the satisfaction of the Council.

V. That if any Member (except the Mayor) of any Committee appointed by the Council, shall (having been duly summoned,) absent himself from, or neglect to attend three Committee Meetings successively, without alleging an excuse, which the Chairman of such Committee, or being himself the Chairman, which a majority of such Committee shall deem satisfactory, his non-attendance shall be reported at the next Council Meeting, and the Council thereupon may, if they think proper, remove such Member from the Committee, and appoint another Member of the Council in his place.

VI. That if any Member of the Council, or of any Committee appointed by the Council, present at any Meeting of the Council, or of such Committee, shall depart or withdraw from the Council or Committee Meeting, without the permission of the Mayor or Chairman, he shall pay a fine of 2s. 6d., for each such offence.

VII. That every person elected into any Corporate office in this Borough, may resign such office on payment of the fine which he would have been liable to pay for non-acceptance of the same office, provided he leave with, or send to the Town Clerk, a notice in writing, of such resignation, addressed to the Council, and such resignation be accepted by the Council.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgess, of the Borough of Sheffield aforesaid, the 18th day of March, 1844.
STANDING ORDERS OF THE COUNCIL,
Passed December 13th, 1843.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

1. That all Notices of Motion shall be given in writing to the Town Clerk, and shall be dated and numbered as received, and filed in the Town Clerk's Office, for the inspection of every Member of the Council.

2. That Motions for which such Notices shall have been given, shall be considered by the Council, in the order in which they are received, and have preference over other motions; routine business, and matters brought specially before the Council by the Mayor, only excepted.

3. That the Town Clerk shall, in the summonses for any Meeting of the Council, in addition to such matters as may be ordered by the Mayor, insert all subjects for which Notices of Motion shall have been received two clear days before the day on which such summonses shall be issued, and state what Committees (if any) have notified their intention to report at such Meeting.

MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

4. That in each of the eight months of the year in which a quarterly Council shall not occur, a Council, for the greater facility of business, shall be summoned for the second Wednesday in every month, and that such Councils shall be denominated—"Monthly Councils," and by that denomination shall be referred to and understood.

5. That all Meetings of the Council, except where otherwise determined by Act of Parliament, shall be held at Eleven o'clock in the forenoon, unless, under special circumstances, the Mayor shall fix some other hour for holding any Meeting.

6. That every Member of the Council who may enter the room after Business shall have commenced, shall hand in his name to the Town Clerk, on a card or a slip of paper; and no Member present at any Council shall quit the room without permission of the Chairman.

7. Each Member, on speaking, shall rise from his seat, and shall address himself to the Chairman, and not to any other Member of the Council. During the time any Member is speaking, all the other Members shall remain seated. Whenever the Chairman rises to speak, no one shall continue standing, nor shall any one else rise until the chair be resumed.

8. That immediately after the confirmation of the minutes of the previous Meeting, the Chairmen of the respective Committees shall, unless otherwise decided, be called upon briefly to report progress; in doing which, they shall state the business that may have been transacted, and the number of Meetings held since the last Meeting of the Council, together with the names both of those who may have attended and those who may have been absent from such Committee Meetings.

9. That at every Meeting of the Council, all motions, whether original motions or amendments, shall be reduced into writing, signed by the mover, and handed to the Town Clerk immediately on being moved; and no motion shall be put to the vote, unless it be seconded, as well as moved.

10. That any Member who intends to submit an original motion or amendment, shall read the same before speaking on it.

11. That all questions shall be determined by a show of hands, unless afterwards a formal division be demanded, or the votes be ordered or be recorded, in which case the names for and against, shall be taken down by the Town Clerk, and entered on the Minutes.

12. That whenever amendments are made upon original propositions, no second amendment shall be taken into consideration until the first be disposed of.

13. That if a first amendment be carried, it shall displace the original question, and be considered itself an original question, upon any further amendment may be moved; but the negativing of any amendment shall not of itself be an affirmance of the immediately preceding motion.

14. That if the first Amendment be negatived, then a second may be moved to the original question under consideration; but only one Amendment shall be submitted to the Council for discussion at one time, and no person shall move more than one Amendment.

15. That the mover of every original Resolution, but not of any Amendment, (unless it become an original question,) shall have a right to reply, not introducing therein any new matter, but confining himself strictly to the answering of previous objections; immediately after which, the question shall be put from the Chair, but no other Member shall be allowed to speak more than once on the same question, unless permission be given to explain, or the attention of the Chair be called to a point of Order.

16. That instead of the usual form of the previous question, it be moved "That the Council proceed to the other Business of the Day;" on the seconding of which, the Chairman shall immediately put the question, (without discussion,) and if the same be carried in the affirmative, the subject in debate shall be considered as disposed of for that day.

17. That no discussion shall be allowed on a motion for an Adjournment.

Committees.

18. That the Mayor shall, ex-officio, be a Member of every Committee.

19. That the Town Clerk shall summon every Committee within eight days after its appointment, and shall afterwards summon any Committee on the request of its Chairman, or any two of its Members.

20. That every Committee, at its first Meeting, shall commence its proceedings by choosing a Chairman, in whose absence, on any occasion, a Chairman pro tempore may be appointed.

21. That every Committee intending to make a report at any Council Meeting, shall notify the same to the Town Clerk two clear days before the day on which the Summonses shall be issued for such Meeting.

22. That in all Committees, unless otherwise ordered at the time of their appointment, three shall be a quorum, and have power to act, and the majority present shall decide; the Chairman having a casting vote only.

Vacancies in Committees and Offices.

23. That every Vacancy in any Committee appointed by the Council, shall be notified to the Council at their next Meeting (Monthly or Quarterly) after such Vacancy shall have occurred, whereupon such Vacancy may, if it be deemed expedient, be forthwith filled up.

Common Seal.

24. That all Deeds, Instruments, and Writings, to which the Common Seal of the Borough shall be required, shall, as to the Seal thereof, be attested in writing by the Mayor or Town Clerk, who shall subscribe his name thereto, as the party attesting such Sealing; and no Petition or Address from this Corporation shall have the Common Seal affixed to it, until it has been submitted to and approved by the Council.

Suspension of Standing Orders.

25. That any one or more of the Standing Orders may be suspended on any emergency, provided three-fourths of the Members of Council present shall deem it advisable, but not otherwise.

ADDITIONAL STANDING ORDERS,

Passed 13th March, 1844.

26. That Strangers be permitted to attend all Meetings of the Council, and to report and publish its proceedings.

27. That the Voting for Committees shall be ascertained by Voting Papers signed with the Voter's name, and containing the name of the person or persons voted for,—and that the Mayor or Chairman shall name so many Scrutators as he may deem fit to examine and report upon the Voting Papers given in.

28. That every Committee required to make a report, shall have power, if they see fit, to print not exceeding 70 copies of such Report for distribution amongst the Members of the Council, previously to submitting the same to the Council.

PASSED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE
BOROUGH OF SHEFFIELD,
On Wednesday, the 9th October, 1844.

To save room, some of the legal tautology of these Bye Laws is omitted in these pages.

1. Hoisting or Delivering Goods into or from Warehouses, &c., without Proper Tackle.—That if any person shall hoist, lower, take in, or deliver, any cask, puncheon, barrel, sack, bag, package, hamper, or other thing, into or from any warehouse, building, cellar, or vault, within the said borough, without having proper or sufficient ropes and other tackle in good order and condition, and fit for such hoisting, lowering, taking in, or delivering, and without slinging, or otherwise effectually securing such cask, puncheon, barrel, sack, bag, box, package, hamper, or other thing, so as to prevent the same from slipping, breaking away, or falling; or if any owner or occupier of any warehouse, building, cellar, or vault, within the said borough, shall wilfully or negligently permit, or suffer any cask, puncheon, barrel, sack, bag, box, package, hamper, or other thing, to be hoisted, lowered, taken in, or delivered out of such warehouse, building, cellar, or vault, without having proper and sufficient ropes and other tackle in good order and condition, and fit for such hoisting, lowering, taking in, or delivering, every person so respectively offending shall pay the fine of 10s.; and for a second offence, alleged and proved as such, and not committed on the same day as such first offence, shall pay the fine of 40s.; and for every offence, being subsequent to a second offence, and alleged and proved as such, and not committed on the same day as any prior offence, shall pay the fine of £5.

2. COACHES AND CARRIERS.  (See Pages 24 to 26.)

SHEFFIELD PARISH.—Out-Townships.

ATTERCLIFFE-CUM-DARNALL township and chapelry occupies a triangular area of 1,336 1/2 acres, and a population of 4156 souls. It includes the villages of Attercliffe and Darnall, the hamlet of Carbrook, a number of scattered dwellings, the Park Iron Works, (commenced about 65 years ago, by Binks and Hartop,) and Sunderland Moor, distant from one to three miles E. and S.E. of Sheffield. It is intersected by the Sheffield and Tinsley Canal. The Duke of Norfolk is lord of the manor, and improvisor; but the soil belongs to Earl Fitzwilliam and a number of freeholders, except Darnall, which forms a small manor, of which the heir of the late Gen. Spencer is lord. The common and waste lands were enclosed in 1811, when many of the ancient footpaths were closed.

ATTERCLIFFE, the largest village in the parish of Sheffield, is on the Doncaster and Worksop roads, 1/4 mile E. of the Market place. It is about three-quarters of a mile in length, and many of its inhabitants are employed in the manufacture of pen and pocket knives, scissors, anvils, scythes, spades, shovels, cast steel, &c. The old chapel of ease, at the eastern extremity of the village, was built in 1629; but it is now only used for sepulchral purposes, having an extensive burial ground. The inhabitants now assemble for divine worship in Christ Church, a handsome Gothic fabric, with lancet windows, a profusion of stained glass, and a handsomely groined roof. This church, built at the expense of £14,000, granted by Parliament, stands near the bold cliff which overhangs the Don, and is said to have been formerly the resort of otters, from which circumstance the village had its name. The first stone was laid by the Duke of Norfolk, assisted by Earl Fitzwilliam, on Oct. 30, 1822; and the church was opened July 26th, 1826. The perpetual curacy, valued in 1831 at £181, is in the patronage of the Vicar, and incumbency of the Rev. John Blackburn, A.M. The Independents and Methodists have each a chapel in the village, erected about 1803, but enlarged and mostly rebuilt in 1824 and 1832. The Town School was built by subscription, about 1779; and the master has, for teaching a Sunday School, £3. 3s. yearly, from the bequest of Robt. Clay, Esq., in 1786, and £13. 9s. 6d. yearly from £449. 3s. 4d. three per cent. stock, purchased with £300 left by Mrs. Elizabeth Fell, in 1795. The Girls' National School was built by subscription, in 1824. The poor have several small benefactions; and at Darnall are four almshouses, with an allowance of 21s. and a load of coals yearly to each inmate, from Mr. Staniforth, of Liverpool. The four old almshouses in Attercliffe, anciently the town school, were rebuilt by the overseers, in 1836, at the cost of about £170.

Carbrook is a hamlet and estate, on the Rotherham road, 2 1/2 miles E. by N. of Sheffield, which belonged to the late Admiral Sotheron, and has an ancient hall, formerly occupied by the Brights, and still retaining traces of its former consequence. In one of the rooms is a curious wooden chimney-piece.

Darnall is a scattered village, on the Worksop road, 3 miles E. of Sheffield. Wm. Walker, the supposed executioner of Charles I., was a native of Darnall, and died there in 1700. Here is a small Chapel of Ease, built in 1840-1, at the cost of £2800, (Rev. W. L. Gibson, curate;) a Methodist Chapel, built in 1822; and an Independent Chapel, built in 1828.

BRIGHTSIDE BIERLOW township comprises 2680 acres, and, in 1841, had 10,089 inhabitants. It includes the villages of Grimesthorpe, Brightside, Neepsend, Pitsmoor, and Crabtree; the seats of New Hall, Burngreave, Norwood, Shircliffe, Firs Hill, Wood Hill, &c.; the woods of Wincobank, Hall Carr, Cook, Old Park, &c., and those populous suburbs of Sheffield, called the Wicker, Nursery, and Bridgehouses, lying on the left bank of the Don. This populous township is without any episcopal place of worship; but a Church is about to be built in the Wicker, at the sole expense of the Misses Harrison, of Weston Hall, the founders of those at Wadsley and Crookes. The only benefactions now possessed by the township are, £40 vested with the overseers, and left by some person unknown; and £3, 10s. yearly from land purchased with £50 left by John Mirfield, in 1753. For these, twelve poor children are educated in the school at Grimesthorpe, which was built by subscription, in 1802, on land given by the Duke of Norfolk, the lord of the manor. The Occupation Road, which leads from the Wicker to Grimesthorpe, is studded with handsome villas; and at the foot of it is the Station of the Sheffield and Rotherham and North Midland Railways, enclosing the ivy-mantled mansion of Hall Carr, above which is the Barnsley New Road, opened in 1837, through the sylvan dell of Burngreave, to Pitsmoor, thus avoiding the precipitous hill of Pye bank. The Station of the Sheffield and Manchester Railway is in the Bridgehouses.

BRIGHTSIDE is a scattered village on the Don, 3 miles E.N.E. of Sheffield.
Here are extensive iron forges, and a railway station. At a short distance, is New Hall, erected by the late John Fell, Esq., who amassed considerable wealth in the iron works here, and whose widow, after appropriating much to charity, bequeathed the residue of her ample fortune to the father of the late Richard Swallow, Esq. The extensive lawn and pleasure grounds of New Hall, (now occupied by John Sanderson, Esq., merchant,) are watered by the Don, and bounded on the east by the village of Attercliffe.

GRIMESTHORPE lies in a picturesque situation, under the woody hill of Wincbank, 2 miles N.E. by N. of Sheffield, and is inhabited chiefly by grinders, and fork and shear makers. It has a Wesleyan Chapel, and two Sunday Schools, the former a neat Gothic edifice, erected in 1833. The inhabitants of the villages of Brightside and Grimesthorpe attend Attercliffe Church, and consider themselves as within that chapelry.

ECCELSALL-BIERLOW township forms the south-western portion of the parish, lying chiefly betwixt the Sheaf and the Porter, but including a large portion of what may properly be called the town of Sheffield. It comprises 4180 acres, and from 1736 to 1841, it increased its population from 2352 to 19,984 souls.
It includes the hamlets, &c., of Abbey Dale, Banner Cross, Bents Green, Button Hill, Cherrytree Hill, Grey Stones, High Field, Little Common, Little Sheffield, Mill Houses, Sharrow Moor, Sharrow Head and Vale, Machon Bank, Upper and Nether Edge, Brincliffe Edge, Broad Oak Green, Carter Knowl, Dobbing Hill, Silver Hill, Whirlow, and Whiteley Wood, extending from the town of Sheffield to the distance of 4 miles W. and S.W. It also comprises Broom Hall, and a large portion of Crookes Moor; and has many handsome villas and well-built streets, which are amongst the best portions of the town and suburbs, especially on and near the Glossop road. The beautiful Gothic mansion of Banner Cross was rebuilt by the late General Murray, who died in 1818, before the work was completely finished. This charming sylvan retreat is now the seat of the Rev. W. Bagshaw. There is no village properly called Ecclesall, the Chapel of Ease being near Banner Cross, on a pleasant eminence, where it was built in 1788, at the cost of £1,533, on the site of a small ancient fabric, in which the monks of Beauchief had long filled the pastoral office. It is a neat stone building, about three miles from the town, and has recently been new roofed and thoroughly repaired. The Vicar of Sheffield is patron of the perpetual curacry, valued at £160; and the Rev. W. H. Vale, M.A., is the incumbent. From several benefactions, the poor have £7, 14s. yearly; the master of Sharrow School, £9, 10s., for eight free scholars; and the master of Broad Oak Green School, £2 for six free scholars. Earl Fitzwilliam is lord of the manor; but a large portion of the soil belongs to other proprietors. Whiteley Wood, near the head of the delightful vale of the porter, 4 miles S.W. of Sheffield, is the sylvan seat of Miss Silcock, who, in 1538, built and endowed Fullwood Church, which stands on the opposite side of the river, in Upper Hallam township. The Ecclesall Poor Law Union is already noticed.

NEITHER HALLAM township has 1902 acres, and had 7275 inhabitants in 1841. It includes the hamlets and suburbs of Upperthorpe, Walcliffe, Malin
Bridge, Hill Bridge, Hill Foot, Portmahom, Philadelphia, and most of Owerton, stretching from 1 to 2 miles N.N.W. ; Steel Bank, Spring Vale, Spring Hill, Barber Nook, Crookes, and Hallam Gate, 2 miles W. by N.: Endcliffe, Lydgate, and Tapton, 2 miles W.; the populous village of Upper and Nether Heeley, nearly 2 miles S. ; and Newfield Green, 3 miles S. by E. of Sheffield. Crookes Church, dedicated to St. Thomas, is a neat Gothic building, erected and endowed in 1840, by the Misses Harrison, and now in the incumbency of the Rev. F. Owen, M.A. The School at Crookes is endowed with land let for £22 a year; and near it is a Methodist Chapel, built in 1836, and the Hadfield Reservoir, at the head of the numerous dams on Crookes Moor, belonging to the Sheffield Waterworks. Heeley is a large village, and has a school, endowed with £20 per annum, and a Methodist Chapel, built in 1826. The erection of a Church at Heeley is in contemplation.

UPPER HALLAM is an extensive, wild, and thinly populated township, forming the north-western portion of the parish, bounded on the north by the Rivelin, and on the south by the Porter, and containing 8836 acres, 1401 souls, and the scattered hamlets of Carsick Hill, Crosspool, Fulwood, Nether Green, Ran Moor, Sandy Gate, Stephen Hill, and Stumperlowe, from 3 to 5 miles W. of Sheffield. The Independents have a chapel at Fulwood, and the Methodists another at Ran moor. The School at Fulwood, built in 1793, is endowed with land let for £13. 13s. a year, purchased with several benefactions, for the education of 18 poor children; and in 1836, £5. 18s. yearly was left by Mr. Hatfield, for 15 additional free scholars. Higher up, in the romantic vale of the Porter, opposite her mansion of Whiteley Wood, is Christ Church, in Fulwood, built and endowed by Miss Phebe Silcock, under the act of the 1st and 2nd of Wm. IV., cap. 38, and vested in trustees. The first stone was laid August 16th, 1837. It is a handsome building, in the lancet Gothic style, 82 feet long by 39 broad, with a tower at the west end, 67 feet high. It cost about £2200, and will seat upwards of 300 hearers. The Rev. E. B. Chalmers, B.A., is the incumbent. Beyond this church is Lord's Seat, Fulwood Head, and Ringinglowe, adjoining the mountainous moors of Derbyshire; and north of these is the Redmires Reservoir, a fine sheet of water, covering about 50 acres, and being now the principal source of the Sheffield Waterworks. It is near the source of the Rivelin; and lower down the stream, on the lofty and precipitous banks of that rivulet, is Bell Hag Inn, 3 miles west of Sheffield, commanding extensive views over the hills and dales of Stannington, Loxley, and Bradford. The inn and large reservoir at Redmires are about six miles west of Sheffield; and a delightful walk of a mile further to the west, carries the tourist to the lofty summit of Stanage Pole, where many of the mountain peaks and dales of Derbyshire are opened to his view.

The MANOR is a small village, nearly 2 miles E.S.E. of Sheffield, and formed principally in the ruins of the ancient Manor House of Hallamshire. It is in Sheffield township, nearly in the centre of the Park, which is now enclosed, and contains a populous suburb of the town, on the acclivity rising from the Sheaf, and many scattered farm-houses, handsome villas, &c.

ANSTON parish contains the villages of North and South Aston, 12 miles E.S.E. of Sheffield, on the Worksop road, in the heart of the limestone district, and contains the quarry from which Messrs. Grissell and Peto obtain the beautiful freestone of which the new Houses of Parliament are constructing. It contains 921 souls, and 3110 acres of land, exclusive of Woodseats township. The Duke of Leeds is lord of the manor. The Church (St. James,) is a curacy, in the gift of the Prebendary of Laughton. At North Aston is a Methodist chapel, and between the two villages is a school, with a small endowment.

CONISBROUGH, or Coningsborough, is a handsome and well-built village, mostly on a bold acclivity betwixt the river Don and the Doncaster road, 12 miles N.E. of Sheffield, and about 1 mile from Strafford Sands, from which, part of the name of the wapentake of Strafforth and Tickhill is derived. Its parish contains about 4000 acres of land, and 1445 inhabitants; and includes Clifton, a village upon a lofty eminence, 1½ mile to the south, containing 101 souls. Conisbro' is celebrated for the ruin of its ancient Saxon castle, which stands upon a conical hill rising abruptly from the Don, at the east end of the village, and forms one of the principal scenes in Sir Walter Scott's popular romance of Ivanhoe. This admired ruin, which consists of the lofty shell of a large and strong circular tower, commands an extensive prospect of the fertile vale of the Don, and was once an impregnable fortress, occupying the whole crown of the eminence, and having the Don on the south and east, and a deep ravine between it and the village, from which it was anciently approached by a drawbridge. The moat is now filled up, and the ruin is finely embowered in elm, ash, and other trees, some of which have grown to a considerable size within the castle walls. The Duke of Leeds is lord of the manor and extensive Honor of Conisbrough, and Jas. Wilson, Esq., of Sheffield, is steward of the courts leet and baron, held in the Moot Hall. The Church (St. Peter) is a vicarage, valued at £206, in the gift of the Archbishop of York. The school and poor have several small benefactions.

HANDSWORTH, or Hansworth, is a pleasant village, occupying a commanding eminence on the Worksop road, 4 1/2 miles E.S.E. of Sheffield. Its parish, which is very fertile, and abounds in coal, contains 2862 inhabitants, and 3510 acres of land, divided into the four constable-wicks of Handsworth, Gleadless, Richmond, and Woodhouse. It is one of the Duke of Norfolk's manors of Hallamshire, but a great part of the soil belongs to other proprietors. The Church is a small ancient fabric, which was partly rebuilt and thoroughly repaired in 1832, but the tower and spire were rebuilt in 1825. The rectory is worth upwards of £600 a year. The Duke of Norfolk is patron, and the Rev. John Hand, L.L.B., is the incumbent. The parish school is endowed with about £20 per annum.

GLEADLESS, 4 miles S.S.E. of Sheffield, is a village, occupied partly by colliers, and has a neat Chapel of Ease, finished in 1840, and an Independent chapel, built in 1824. In take is a hamlet and district of modern enclosures, three miles S.E. of Sheffield, and has near it several collieries. Richmond is a rural hamlet, 3 1/2 miles E. by S. of Sheffield. Woodhouse, or Handsworth Woodhouse, is a neat scattered village, in the delightful vale of a small rivulet, 5 miles E.S.E. of Sheffield; and has a Methodist chapel, built in 1814, and an Independent chapel, erected in 1836. Near Woodhouse Mill is a Station on the North Midland Railway.

Rotherham.

Rotherham is a busy market town on the navigable part of the river Don, and has long been celebrated for its iron and steel works; its noble Gothic church; its extensive corn and cattle market; and for the glass-houses, and numerous potteries in its vicinity. It is more ancient than its gigantic neighbour, Sheffield, from which it is distant about 6 miles N.E. by E., being 12 miles from Doncaster, 12 from Barnsley, and 168 from London. It is situated partly on the declivity of a hill, and partly in a valley, on the river Don, at its conflux with the river Rother, from which latter it has its name. The houses are generally of stone, and some of them are handsomely and substantially built; but owing to the low situation of many of them, and to the irregularity and narrowness of the streets, the town has rather a dull appearance, though it has been greatly improved during the last twenty years, especially since the opening of the Sheffield and Rotherham, and the North Midland Railways, which unite at Masbrough. The town has now about 8,000 inhabitants, including its populous suburbs of Masbrough and the Holmes, which are in Kimberworth township, on the western side of the Don, which is here crossed by a fine old Bridge of five pointed arches, with an ancient chapel standing on the centre pier, and long used as the town prison. The PARISH or ROTHERHAM comprises 12,810 acres of land, and 13,539 souls, and is divided into eight Townships, of which the following is an enumeration, shewing their territorial extent, and their population, in the years 1801, 1831, and 1841:—

† Dalton township includes the hamlets of Dalton-Magna, Dalton-Brook, and Dalton-Parva; but part of the latter, and 100 of its inhabitants, are in Thrybergh parish.

* Greasbrough and Kimberworth are in the North (or Lower) Division, and the other six townships in the South (or Upper) Division of the Wapentake of Strafforth and Tickhill. The whole parish is in the Deanery of Doncaster.

† Kimberworth includes Masbrough and the Holmes, which are populous suburbs of Rotherham.

‡ Rotherham return, in 1841, included 139 persons in the Union Workhouse; 4 in the Gaol; and 39 strangers attending the fair. The increase of population in Rotherham township, from 1831 to 1841 (1,422), is attributed to the opening of the Railways; and that in Tinsley, (144,) to the opening of new collieries.

‡ Greasbrough and Tinsley are Parochial Chapels; and Kimberworth has a District Church.

Rotherham township belongs chiefly to the Earl of Effingham, (lord of the manor;) the Walkers of Masbro; the Feoffees of Rotherham; and the heirs of the late Samuel Buck, Esq. Before the Norman Conquest, Acune the Saxon, was lord of the Manor of Rotherham, but William the Conqueror dispossessed him, and gave it to the Earl of Mortaign, under whom it was held by one Nigel, from whose descendants it passed to the family of Vesey, one of whom, in the reign of Edward I., gave it to Rufford Abbey, in Nottinghamshire, together with eight oxgangs of land in the said lordship, and the advowson of one moiety of the church. It remained in the possession of the monks of that house till the dissolution of the monasteries, when Henry VIII. granted it to the Earl of Shrewsbury, from whom it hath descended, together with Kimberworth manor, to the present lord and improppriator, the Earl of Effingham, a collateral descendant of the illustrious Howarls, Dukes of Norfolk. During the civil wars in the reign of Charles I., Rotherham embraced the popular cause; but in 1643, "it was reduced to subjection by Wm. Cavendish," who was afterwards created Duke of Newcastle. After the siege of Sheffield, it fell into the hands of the parliamentarians, and since that period its peace has not been disturbed by any military conflict.

Manufactures.—In ancient times, Rotherham was famous for its manufacture of edge tools, and there are still iron and steel works on a large scale in its immediate vicinity, especially in its suburbs,—Masbro' and the Holmes, both in Kimberworth township, where there were mines of ironstone, two smelling furnaces, and two forges, as early as 1160, but they appear to have been of very small dimensions, compared with the immense Iron Works of Masbro', which were founded by the late Samuel Walker, Esq., whose history is short but instructive:—At twelve years of age he was left an orphan, with two brothers and four sisters, without property, and almost without education. His industry and talents soon supplied these deficiencies, and qualified him for keeping a school. He afterwards established, along with his brothers, Aaron and Jonathan, a small foundry, which in time, under his fostering genius, became one of the most extensive and flourishing establishments of the kind in Europe. He died on the 12th of May, 1782, in the 66th year of his age, rich in property, and abounding in Christian virtues. At these great iron works there were manufactured during the late wars with America and France, immense quantities of cannon of the largest caliper, and almost every kind of cast iron articles, as well as many of wrought iron. The large iron bridges of Sunderland, Yarm, and Staines, as well as the bridge which crosses the Thames, called Southwark Bridge, were cast at these foundries, in which less business is at present done than formerly, partly from the number of similar establishments which have arisen in other parts of the kingdom, but principally, perhaps, from the great wealth of the Walker family having diminished the stimulus to ardent exertion. They commenced a bank in Sheffield and Rotherham, in 1792; but in 1836 it was transferred to a joint stock company. After peace had been restored to Europe, in 1815, and there was no longer any demand for those military and naval stores, such as cannon, mortars, balls, &c., the Walkers gave up their extensive iron and steel works, and from the immense number of workmen who were thrown out of employment, Rotherham appeared to be doomed to a speedy and ruinous decay; but happily the deserted works were, in a few years, divided and let off to more humble speculators; and since then, both the iron and steel manufactures have continued to increase. The town possesses great advantage for the production of heavy articles, being on the navigable part of the river Don, and having in its vicinity an abundance of coal and ironstone. Its commercial facilities have been greatly augmented by the Sheffield and Rotherham, and the North Midland Railways; the latter of which crosses the former on the western side of the town, and is carried over the vale of the Don, by a viaduct of 30 arches, and about half a mile in length.

The Weekly Market, which is held on Monday, is extensively supplied with corn and cattle; and on every second Monday there is a fair, or great market, for fat cattle, sheep, and hogs; and this, like the fortnight fairs at Wakefield, which it much resembles, is numerously attended by graziers and butchers. A market for butter, poultry, &c., is held on Friday. A ‘Statutes’ or Hiring for Servants, is held on the first Monday in November, and two fairs on Whit-Monday and December 1st. In 1801, an Act of Parliament was obtained for lighting and cleansing the town, and for making new Market-places. Under the powers of this Act, the Commissioners erected the present Shambles, near the Butter-Cross, but the cattle are exposed for sale in the Crofts, on the south side of the town, where there are convenient pens and every necessary accommodation. On the river, there are several extensive wharfs, and at the Railway Stations are commodious warehouses, &c. In the town and neighbourhood are two glass-houses, and two large breweries; and at Swinton and Rawmarsh are several china and earthenware manufactories. A New Corn Exchange and Butter Market was built in 1842, at the cost of about £950, of which, £300 was subscribed, and the rest was given by the Feoffees of the town lands.

The Parish Church is a spacious and handsome Gothic fabric, built in the reign of Edward IV., on the site of a Saxon edifice. It is dedicated to All Saints, and is indisputably one of the finest parochial places of worship in Yorkshire. It was thoroughly repaired in 1845. The interior includes a spacious nave, two side aisles, a north and south transept, and a chancel, which has an open communication with the aisles, but is divided from the nave by the organ gallery. In the south transept is a beautiful marble monument, in memory of 50 young persons, chiefly children, who were drowned at the launching of a vessel, in the river at Masbrough, July 5th, 1841. By the generous sympathy of their fellow townsmen and others, a fund was raised to relieve the families bereaved by this sad calamity, and to erect this monumental record. The Earl of Effingham is proprietor of the rectorial tithes, and patron of the vicarage, which was valued in 1831 at £170, and is now enjoyed by the Rev. Richd. Mosley, M.A. The Rev. Robt. Smith, B.A., is curate; Mr. Sewell, of Sheffield, organist; Mr. J. Preston, parish clerk; and Thomas Broadhead, sexton. The improper tithes were commuted in 1762 and 1765.

There are in the town four Chapels belonging to Dissenters, viz:—the Independent Chapel, connected with the Independent College; the Particular Baptist Chapel, near the foot of Westgate; the Presbyterian or Unitarian Chapel, at the head of Oilmill-Lane, erected in 1706, and partly rebuilt in 1841; and the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, in Talbot-lane, built in 1805, and enlarged in 1832, so that it will now hold 1,500 hearers. The Baptist Chapel was built in 1836, in lieu of the small old chapel on Masbro' Common. It has a handsome stone-front in the Grecian style, and cost about £1,100. In Masbro' is a neat Catholic Chapel, finished in 1843.
The Rotherham General Cemetery, in Moorgate road, was established by a company of shareholders, in 1842, and comprises about two acres of land, tastefully enclosed and planted, and having a neat chapel and handsome lodge-entrance. Part of the ground is consecrated for the use of members of the established church. Land for a private grave may be purchased, in perpetuity, for £1. 10s. and upwards, according to situation. Mr. John Mycock is the registrar, and Mr. Thos. Broadhead the sexton.

Feoffees of the Common Lands of Rotherham:—The oldest deed respecting this trust, is dated 26th of Elizabeth, and recites that the inhabitants conveyed to the twelve Feoffees and their successors, in perpetuity, certain charity and other public property to be employed to divers good uses, "as beforetime had been accustomed; that is to say, for the relief of the poor people of the town, for the maintaining and repairing of bridges in and about the town, and for and towards the discharge and contribution of fifteens, taxes, musters, and other common charges, wherewith the town of Rotherham and inhabitants thereof might be charged." The number of twelve Feoffees is kept up by election in the manner specified in a trust-deed executed in 1778,—the lord of the manner being always one of the number. The "common lands which they hold in trust, are subject to several specific payments for charitable purposes in respect of other charity property mixed therewith." The trust-property consists of about 70 acres of land, and the Ship Inn, and from 20 to 30 other houses, &c., in Rotherham and Masbro, which yield collectively, upwards of £567 per annum. The present Feoffees are,—the Earl of Effingham, and Messrs. Robt. Bentley, Wm. Earnshaw, John Nightingale, (greave,) Chas. Nightingale, Hy. Walker, Thos. Badger, Wm. Glossop, and T. Didsbury.

The Grammar School forms a branch of the general trust of the Feoffees, but there are no deeds or writings relative to its foundation, though the master receives a yearly stipend of £10. 15s. 4d. from the land revenues of the Crown, supposed to have been reserved on the dissolution of Jesus College. The Feoffees appoint the master, and allow him a small yearly gratuity and the use of a house. The Feoffees' School was built in 1776, and has an endowment of about £100 per annum; of which £50 is paid to the master, and the remainder is expended in providing clothing and books for 28 boys and 20 girls. Hollis's School, founded by Thomas Hollis, and connected with the Unitarian chapel, is endowed with £20 a year for the education of 12 poor boys and 12 poor girls. The British School was built by subscription, in 1833, for the accommodation of 200 boys and 200 girls, who are instructed on the Lancasterian system. Parkgate School, opened in 1843, was built by Earl Fitzwilliam, and is conducted on the Lancasterian system, for the instruction of about 150 children. There are Infant Schools in Wellgate and Westgate.

The Almshouses, for four poor women, were founded in 1780, by Mary Bellamy, and endowed with property now yielding about £68 per annum, out of which each inmate has an annuity of £12. The Great Dole produces £57. 10s. a year, arising from land left by Thos. Woodhouse, John Shaw, Thos. Dickinson, and other benefactors, in the 17th century. The poor of Rotherham have the benefit of fourteen other benefactions, which yield, collectively, about £57 a year, which is distributed by the churchwardens according to the wills of the donors.

The Rotherham Independent College, situated in Masbrough, is an academical institution, for the education of young men, intended for the ministry amongst that class of Protestant Dissenters called Congregationalists, or Independents. It was opened in 1795, and has generally upwards of 20 students. The Rev. W. H. Stowell is the President and Theological Tutor; and the Rev. Thos. Smith, M.A., of Sheffield, is the Classical Tutor. The chapel connected with this college, was enlarged in 1815, and has a good organ, erected in 1845, at the cost of £150. Adjoining it is a Sunday School, built in 1841, at the cost of £1,000.

A handsome Public Building was erected in 1829, on the site of the old TOWN HALL, by public subscription, amounting to nearly £2,000; and it now comprises the Grammar School, the Dispensary, the Subscription Library, (established in 1775, and now having more than 3,000 volumes;) and the News Room, which is well supplied with London and provincial papers.

The COURT-HOUSE, near the old College, is a large and handsome fabric, built at the cost of more than £5,000, in 1825 and '6, and having ample accommodation for the Quarter and Petty Sessions, the Court of Requests, &c. The Petty Sessions are held on every alternate Monday, before the neighbouring magistrates,—among whom are Col. Fullerton, T. B. Bosville, Esq., Henry Walker, Esq., Rev. G. Chandler, and the Earl of Effingham, who are also commissioners of taxes, and hold here a court of appeal. Mr. John Oxley is their clerk. Mr. Thomas Badger, is one of the county coroners; and Mr. John Bland is high constable and inspector of weights and measures for the Upper Division of Strafford and Tickhill. A Court Leet is held annually. Mr. W. F. Hoyle is the manor steward; and William Pigeon is the town crier and pinder. The Police Force consists of Mr. John Bland, superintendent; Wm. Hudson, constable and keeper of the lock-up; and William Pigeon, John Timm, and John Hempshall watchmen. An Act was obtained in 1839, for a LOCAL COURT, for the recovery of debts of not more than £15, contracted within the parishes of Rotherham, Ecclesfield, Handsworth, Laughton, Whiston, Wickersley, &c. &c. Wm. Walker, Esq., of Wilsick Hall, near Tickhill, is the judge; Mr. Fras. Parker, treasurer; Mr. W. F. Hoyle, of Rotherham, and Mr. E. Newman, of Barnsley, are the clerks; T. E. Peacock, deputy- clerk; and Thomas Crookes, bailiff.

The Water Works were established in 1827, by a company of proprietors, with a capital of £2,000. The Gas Works, near the bridge, were erected in 1833, by a company of shareholders, with a capital of £5,000, raised in shares of £25. Wm. Hague is collector to both companies; and Henry Holdsworth is manager of the gas works, from which gas is supplied at the rate of 6s. 8d. per 1,000 cubic feet.

The ROTHERHAM UNION, under the New Poor Law, comprises all the eight townships of Rotherham parish; the four townships of Brampton- Bierlow, Swinton, Wath, and Wentworth; the townships of Hooton Levett and Maltby; the township of Bramley in Braithwell parish; the three townships of Treeton parish; and the parishes of Hooton-Roberts, Laughton-en-le-Morthen, Ravenfield, Rawmarsh, Thribergh, Whiston, Wickersley, Aston-cum-Aughton, and Beighton,—the latter of which is in Derbyshire. Two guardians are chosen for Rotherham; two for Kimberworth; and one for each of the other twenty-five townships. A Workhouse, for the whole Union, capable of accommodating 200 paupers, was built in 1838 and '9, at the cost of about £4,000, on five acres of land which was purchased at the cost of £1,000. Earl Fitzwilliam is chairman, and J. Fullerton and J. Aldred, Esqrs., are vice-chairmen of the Board of Guardians; Mr. John Oxley is the clerk and superintendent registrar; Mr. W. F. Hoyle is the auditor; John Worsley, governor of the workhouse; the Rev. John J. Spear, of Kimberworth, chaplain; and Sarah Thickett is the schoolmistress. The Union is divided into eight Medical Districts, and five Registrar Districts, and contained 28,783 inhabitants in 1841. Its twenty seven townships embrace an area of 79 square miles; and their expenditure for the relief of the poor, in 1840, was £6,581. 4s.; and for the quarter ending March 22nd, 1845—£2,567. 4s. 2½d. The Relieving Officers are—Mr. R. T. Barras, for Rotherham District, and Mr. J. Barras for Kimberworth District. They are likewise Registrars of Births and Deaths; as also are—John Wood, for Wath; Fredk. W. Flower, for Maltby; and John Atkinson, for Beighton District. Mr. John Mycock is Registrar of Marriages for the whole Union.

Its Parish comprises the five townships of Wath, Brampton-Bierlow, Nether Hoyland, Swinton, and Wentworth, which contain 11,120 acres of land, and 8,911 inhabitants, though their population amounted only to 3,906 souls, in 1801. Earl Fitzwilliam, whose princely seat (Wentworth House,) is in the heart of the parish, is lord of the manors, and owner of most of the soil. Wath township contains 1,453 souls, and 1,550 acres. The Church (All Saints,) is a vicarage, valued in K.B. at £15. 10s. 2d., and in 1831 at £315, with the perpetual curacy of Adwick-upon-Dearne annexed to it, in the gift of Christ Church, Oxford, and incumbency of the Rev. H. Partington, M.A. The Rev. J. Lowe, B.A., is the Afternoon Preacher, and has £47. 10s. a year from Ellis’s Charity. The Charities for the poor yield about £33, and for the School £14 a year. A Monthly Magazine was published in this “Queen of Villages,” from Jan. 1831 till Dec. 1833.

BRAMPTON-BIERLOW township contains 1,704 inhabitants, 3,150 acres of land, and the hamlets of Brampton, (near Wath,) Hooper, Newhill, Elsecar, Coley Lane, Cortwood, and West Melton, extending south-west from Wath to Wentworth, and having several iron works and collieries, partly worked by Earl Fitzwilliam. At Brampton is a good Inn, (the Bull’s Head,) and also a National School, built in 1818. The school and poor have about £100 per annum, from Geo. Ellis’s Charity, left in 1711; and the former has £12, and the latter £2. 10s. a year, left by John Higson, in 1814. The poor have several other benefactions.

NEITHER HOYLAND township and chapelry, 9 miles N. of Sheffield, comprises 2,597 souls, and 2,030 acres of land, divided into the hamlets of High and Low Hoyland. On a branch of the Dearne and Dove canal are the extensive iron works called Milton Furnace. About 70 years ago, the Townsend family rebuilt the Chapel at High Hoyland, but it was taken down in 1831, and a commodious Church (St. Peter,) was built upon its site, partly with a Parliamentary grant of £1,000. The curacy, valued in 1831 at £150, is in the gift of the Hon. Edmund Phipps, and incumbency of the Rev. Fras. Mande, who gave £900 towards the augmentation of the living, in 1824, when £900 was granted to it by parliament. The Methodist Chapel was built in 1809.

SWINTON, 5 miles N. by E. of Rotherham, and 11 from Sheffield, has a Station on the North Midland Railway, and is celebrated as the chief seat of the China and Earthenware manufacture in the north of England. Its township is a chapelry, and comprises a scattered village, 1,800 inhabitants, and 1,500 acres of land, including part of Kilnhurst, and the hamlets of Abdy and Birdwell Flat. The extensive pottery called Rockingham Works, was commenced in 1743, and the Don Pottery, in 1801. The Church (St. Margaret,) was rebuilt in 1816, at the cost of £6,000, most of which was given by the late Earl Fitzwilliam. The present Earl and the vicar of Wath are patrons of the perpetual curacy, valued in 1831 at £160, and now enjoyed by the Rev. J. Lowe, B.A.

THORPE HESLEY, an old village, 6 miles N. by E. of Sheffield, is noted for the manufacture of Nails, and is in the township of Wentworth, except a small part, which is in Kimberworth township. It has a neat Church, built in 1837, chiefly at the cost of Earl Fitzwilliam, and the late Earl of Effingham. Here is a neat Wesleyan Chapel; and a School, with an endowment of £11. 2s. per annum.

WENTWORTH, a large village, near the western verge of Wentworth Park, 8 miles N. of Sheffield, has in its township and chapelry, 1,497 souls, and 2,880 acres of fertile land, including most of the village of Thorpe Hesley, and the hamlets of Barrow, Barley Hole, and Hood Hill; the latter of which is on the Sheffield and Barnsley turnpike. Earl Fitzwilliam is owner of the soil, lord of the manor, and patron of the Church, a neat structure, containing several handsome monuments in memory of his ancestors. The perpetual curacy, valued at £125, is enjoyed by the Rev. J. S. Upton. The benefactions given by the Wentworth family to the curate and the poor, produce upward of £200 per annum. The Hospitals, for six poor men and six poor women, were founded by the Earl of Strafford, in 1697, and endowed with £36 a year. The School was founded by the Hon. Thos. Wentworth, in 1716, and endowed with 7a. of land, and a yearly rent-charge of £65. The poor have several other small charities; and here is a Girls' National School, built by Earl Fitzwilliam, in 1837.

WENTWORTH HOUSE, the splendid seat of Earl Fitzwilliam, is pleasantly situated in an extensive and well wooded park, 1 mile E. of Wentworth village, 8 miles N. by E. of Sheffield, and 4 miles N.N.W. of Rotherham. This magnificent edifice, which consists of a centre and two wings, has a front of exquisite architecture, 600 feet in length, and the portico is peculiarly elegant. The hall is 60 feet square, and 40 feet high, with a gallery 10 feet wide, running round the whole, and supported by 18 Ionic pillars, the intervening niches of which are ornamented with fine marble statues. The gallery at the end of the hall is 130 ft. long, by 18 ft. wide; and there are spread over the various apartments a number of exquisite paintings, from the pencil of Guido, Paulo Giordano, Caracci, Titian, Luca Giordano, and Spagnoletto. The museum also contains a number of fine antiques, which claim the attention of the virtuoso. The new banquetting hall, fitted up about 1832, at a great expense, presents the most superb display of gilt plaster work in the north of England. Every thing without this princely mansion is consistent with the magnificence that reigns within. The PARK comprises 1,500 a. of beautifully variegated ground, richly clothed with wood, embellished with expanses of water, and extending southward into the township of Greasbro',—being about 24 miles in length, and more than 2 in breadth. From the bosom of the majestic woods, on the north side of the park, near the hamlet of Hooper or Hooper, rises a beautiful Ionic column, erected by the Marquis of Rockingham, to commemorate the acquittal of his gallant friend—Admiral Keppel. In the south-east part of the park, is Peacock Wood, a beautiful plantation with serpentine walks, planted with a diversity of trees and shrubs, forming the abode of a considerable number of peacocks, and containing the park keeper's residence, and an elegant quadrangular building, formerly furnished in the Chinese style. But the chief object of admiration is the MAUSOLEUM, erected by the late Earl Fitzwilliam, in honour of his revered
WENTWORTH HOUSE.

This superb monument, which is built of free stone, stands on an eminence to the right of the grand entrance into the park from the Rotherham road. The height is ninety feet, and it consists of three divisions. The first is a square Doric basement; the second story is of the same form, but of the Ionic order, each of its four sides opening into an arch, and disclosing a beautiful sarcophagus standing in the centre; on the frieze of the entablature over the arches, is this inscription in Roman characters:—This Monument was erected by Wentworth, Earl Fitzwilliam, 1788, to the Memory of Charles, Marquis of Rockingham. This is surmounted by a cupola, supported by twelve columns of the same order; and at each corner of the raking which encloses this superb structure, is a lofty obelisk. But the most interesting part is the interior of the lowest story; this is an apartment rising into a dome, and supported by eight columns, encircling a white marble statue of the departed Marquis, in his robes, as large as life, by Nollekins. In the four recesses of this apartment are placed fine white marble busts of Edmund Burke and the Duke of Portland; Frederick Montague and Sir George Savile; Charles James Fox and Admiral Keppel; John Lee and Lord George Cavendish. The statue of the Marquis stands on a square pedestal, on one side of which his titles are inscribed, and the other three pay a just and noble tribute to his memory in prose and in verse,—the first by Edmund Burke, and the second by Frederick Montague. It is justly said of him, that "the object of his public life was to give stability to the liberties of his country; security to its landed property; increase to its commerce; independence to its public councils, and concord to its empire." "These were his ends. For the attainment of these ends, his policy consisted in sincerity, fidelity, directness, and constancy." The virtues of his private life adorned his public character. And, "a sober, unaffected piety, the basis of true morality, gave truth and permanence to his virtues. His successors are reminded that this monument is not built to entertain the eye, but to instruct the mind; and they are not inattentive to the daily monitor; their private virtues, and their pubic worth, prove them to be the legitimate representatives of the house of Wentworth. No sacrifice is too great for them to make, that the maintenance of the laws and the liberties of their country require. Alike unallured by the smiles, and unawed by the frowns of courts, they fearlessly discharge their public duties as Senators and as Britons, and consider all power, whether it be that of a sovereign, or of his viceroy, as a delegation to be held only for the benefit of the people. This is true nobility. Of the antiquity of the family it is therefore unnecessary to speak, though it is more than coeval with the Norman Conquest.

TANKERSLEY, a small scattered village, 9 miles N. of Sheffield, and 5 miles S. of Barnsley, is in Staincross Wapentake. Its parish comprises the two townships of Tankersley and Wortley. The former has 813 souls, and 250 acres of land, partly belonging to Lord Wharncliffe, but mostly to Earl Fitzwilliam, the lord of the manor. Tankersley Park, noted for some of the finest red deer, and oldest oaks in England, is still preserved as an adjunct to the more extensive park of Wentworth; but only the ruins of one wing of its ancient Hall is now extant. On an eminence is Folly Lodge, a modern Greecian tower, commanding extensive views, in which York minster may be seen in a clear day. The Church (St. Peter,) is a rectory, certified at £30, and valued in 1831 at £474. Earl Fitzwilliam is patron, and the Rev. J. S. Upton, of Wentworth, incumbent.

WORTLEY, which has a Station on the Sheffield and Manchester Railway, is a pleasant village, township, and chapelry, on the Penistone road, 8½ miles N. by W. of Sheffield. It is in Tankersley parish and Staincross Wapentake, and comprises 990 inhabitants, and 3,580 acres of land, picturesquely broken into hill and dale, bounded on the west by the Don, and in many places finely clothed with wood. It is the property of the Rt. Hon. James Archibald Stuart Wortley Mackenzie, Lord Wharncliffe, who was raised to the peerage in 1826, after having been a representative for Yorkshire in several successive Parliaments. Here are about 50 cottages, to each of which his Lordship has attached (rent free) about a rood of land; and, as a stimulus to industry and cleanliness, he distributes rewards yearly to those cottagers who have the best crops and the cleanest houses. A petty sessions is held at the inn, on every alternate Friday. The Hall, where his Lordship resides, is an elegant mansion, standing near the village, in a verdant lawn, embowered in thriving plan. tations; and its grounds and walks extend southward to the extensive park of WHARNCLIFFE, on the banks of the Don, 6 miles from Sheffield, anciently called Wharncliffe Chase, and the scene of the subject of the old poem of the "Dragon of Wantley." Here the hills are thickly clad with native woods, and rises boldly from the banks of the Don, till they place the visitor on an elevation, from which he commands a prospect rich, varied, and extensive as he can behold. Lady Mary Wortley Montague spent here much of the earliest and happiest years of her wedded life: and after travelling over Europe, and speaking of a little Belvidere which she had constructed in the neighbourhood of the city of Avignon, said—"it commands the finest land prospect ever beheld, except Wharncliffe." On one of the highest peaks of these craggy hills is Wharncliffe Lodge, built in 1510, by Sir Thomas Wortley, for the pleasure (as an unique inscription cut in the face of the rock informs the reader) of hearing the hart's bell, a sylvan sound which it appears was very pleasing to our ancestors. In this Lodge, Lady Mary gave birth to that singular and romantic character, her son, the Hon. Edward Wortley Montague, whose father was a younger son of the Earl of Sandwich. She was the daughter of Sir Francis Wortley, in whom the male line of that ancient family became extinct. They enjoyed the honour of knighthood from an early period, and one of them was created a baronet in 1611. The Lodge, occupied by the park keeper, is now being partly rebuilt, and is visited by numerous pleasure parties, from Sheffield, Barnsley, &c. Wharncliffe Wood (the largest in England) comprises about 2,300 acres, thickly clothed with oak and other timber; and the walk through it, from the Lodge to Wortley Hall, or Deepcar, by the Holly Bush Ride, is one of the finest in the kingdom;—passing over the summit of a long and lofty craggy precipice, presenting a grand display of stupendous rocks, broken and dishevelled in a diversity of grotesque forms, and some of the huge blocks of solid stone, detached from the cliff, and apparently ready to roll into the immense wood below, where many ponderous masses have gone before them. Wortley Church is a neat structure with a tower, and is a perpetual curacy, valued in 1831 at £105 per annum,—being augmented in 1740 and '51, with £400 of Q.A.B.; and in 1813 and '15, with £1,700 in two parliamentary grants. Lord Wharncliffe is the patron, and his chaplain, the Rev. Wm. Harris, M.A., of Sheffield, is the incumbent. The curacy was held by the Ven. Stuart Corbett, D.D., archdeacon of York, from 1804 till his death in 1845. The poor of Wortley have about £32 per annum, left by the Countess of Devonshire, and other donors.

ECCLESFIELD PARISH.

This parish lies within the liberty of Hallamshire, and is very extensive, stretching more than eleven miles in length, from Chapeltown to the confines of Derbyshire, above Broomhead and Midhope, and averaging from three to five miles in breadth. The two townships of Ecclesfield and Bradford, into which the parish is divided, comprise many villages and hamlets, and contain 48,540 acres of land, and 15,150 inhabitants; though the population in 1801, was only 9,216. The Duke of Norfolk is lord of the Manors of Ecclesfield, Bradford, Grenofirth, Southey-and-Wadsley, and Westmarr-and-Waldersheff, which comprise the whole parish, except Aldwark, Bolsterstone, and Midhope, and are within the jurisdiction of the Sheffield Court of Requests. The Duke has much of the land, and several extensive woods; but here are many large freeholds, and a number of mansions dignified with the name of halls. The parish produces coal, ironstone, and black and firebrick clay; and some portion of the cutlery and nail manufactures are found in it. The Sheffield and Manchester Railway crosses it, in the picturesque valley of the Don, where there are many iron and coal works, as well as at Chapeltown and Thorncliffe. The parish is in Wortley Union, which comprises 23,214 souls; and expended on its poor £3,755, in 1840; and £5,721, in 1842; though its average annual expenditure for three years preceding the formation of the Union, was only £4,962.

ECCLESFIELD is a large village upon an eminence, near the Barnsley road, 5 miles N. of Sheffield. In Domesday Book, it is called Ecclesfelt, and is represented as having had six Saxons lords—Ulfac, Elsi, Godric, Dunnine, Elmor, and Norman; but it was then the undivided property of Roger de Busli. The Parish Church is sometimes called the "Minster of the Moors," being, as Dodsworth describes it, the fairest village church in the county. It is dedicated to St. Mary, and has a fine lofty spire, and many handsome monuments; but some of its beautiful stained glass disappeared during the civil wars. Four new bells, making an excellent peal of eight, in the key of F, were hung in 1845. The Duke of Norfolk is patron of the vicarage, which is now worth about £600 per annum, and is enjoyed by the Rev. Alfred Gatty, M.A. The Independents, and the Old and New Connexion Methodists, have each a chapel in the village; and the parish enjoys the benefit of several charitable institutions, besides the Almshouses at Chapeltown, Mortomley Lane End, Barnes Hall, and Wadsley Bridge, (in which are 25 poor people;) and the small endowed Free Schools at Lound, Parson Cross, Shire Green, Grenoside, Wadsley, and High Green.
Ecclesfield Township has 9,810 acres, and 8,832 inhabitants, including the following villages and hamlets:—CHAPELTOWN is a good village, in the valley below Ecclesfield, 6 miles N. of Sheffield. Near it are extensive coal and iron works; the hamlets of Mortomley, Potter's Hill, Burnt Cross, High Green, and Hesley; and the ancient mansion of Howsley Hall, which has in its garden a full-grown cork tree. GRENOSIDE, in the manor of Grenofirth, is a scattered hamlet, occupying a lofty and picturesque acclivity on the north side of the Don, 4½ miles N.N.W. of Sheffield. At the foot of the hill, are BIRLEY CAR and Parson Cross. SHIRE GREEN and NETHER SHIRE, 3 miles N. of Sheffield, are in Southey manor, and are occupied chiefly by farm makers. About a mile nearer Sheffield, are Brush Houses and Bolsover Hill,—near the former of which, in a plantation, upon an eminence, is the grave of Mr. John Booth, who died in 1797. WADSLEY is a large scattered village, from 3 to 4 miles N.W. of Sheffield, occupied chiefly by families engaged in the manufacture of the coarser kinds of pocket knives, and having in its vicinity many grinding wheels, tilts, and forges, and the pleasant villas of Hillsbro', Warsend, &c. In the village is a neat Gothic Church, which was finished in 1834, at the cost of Misses Harrison, of Weston Hall, and is now in the incumbency of the Rev. Wm. Bruce, B.A. Here are also several Dissenting Chapels. WINCOBANK, a small village, on a lofty acclivity, above Grimesthorpe, 3 miles N. by E. of Sheffield, is occupied chiefly by farmers and fork makers; and on its woody eminence are traces of a Roman camp. James Dixon, Esq., has estates in the parish, and built the chapel at Birley Car.

BRADFIELD CHAPELRY AND TOWNSHIP comprises a wild but picturesque region of hill, dale, and moorland, in which are 33,730 acres, and 6,318 inhabitants; many grinding wheels, tilts, forges, &c.; several paper mills; and the following villages and hamlets, viz.:—BRADFIELD, 7 miles N.W. by W.; Bolsterstone, 8 miles N.W.; Damflask, 6 miles N.W.; Deepcar, 7¼ miles N.W.; Dungworth, Storr's, and Ugillow, on the Loxley, from 5 to 7 miles N.W. by W.; Loxley, Holdworth, and Little Matlock, 4 miles N.W. by W.; Midhope, 10 miles N.W.; the large village of OUGHTIRBRIDGE, on the Don, near a railway station, 5 miles N.W. by N.; STANNAINGTON, a large scattered village, on an eminence above the Rivelin, 4½ miles W.N.W.; Worrall, 5 miles N.W.; BRIGHTHOLMLEE, Onesacre, Pairest, Smallfield, Moorwood, Hollow Meadows, &c., from 7 to 9 miles N.W. by N.; and Wigtwizzle, 10 miles N.W. of Sheffield. Near the latter, is Broomhead Hall, the beautiful seat of Mrs. Rimington. This extensive parochial chapelry is in the Duke of Norfolk's manors of Bradfield and Westnall-and-Waldershelf. The Church at Bradfield is coeval with that at Ecclesfield, and is a curacy, now enjoyed by the Rev. John Fletcher, of Sheffield. There are four small endowed schools, at Bradfield, Onesacre, Midhope and Stanton. In the latter village is a neat Church, built in 1830, at the cost of £3,000, given by Parliament. The Rev. C. Bradford, is the incumbent. There is an Unitarian Chapel at Stanton; and an old Independent Chapel at Loxley, near which is the romantic Cliff and Rocher, or Little Matlock, in the heart of Loxley Chase, now enclosed, and said to have been one of the haunts, if not the birth-place, of Robin Hood. A Church has lately been built at Oughtibridge.

LAUGHTON-EN-LE-MORTHEN. is a large and well-built village, on a lofty eminence, 7 miles E. by S. of Rotherham, and 12 miles E.N.E. of Sheffield. Its parish, including the ancient parochial chapel of Thorpe St. John's, comprises the townships of Laughton, Gildingswells, Letwell, and Throapham. Laughton township includes the hamlets of Slade Hooton, Brookhouse, and Carr, about one mile N. of Laughton, and contains 742 inhabitants, and 3500 acres of land. A. F. B. St. Leger, Esq., owns most of the soil, and is lord of the manor. His steward is Mr. W. F. Hoyle, of Rotherham. The Church (All Saints,) is a handsome edifice, consisting of a nave, aisles, and chancel, with a tower at the west end, surmounted by a tall crocketed spire towering to the height of 185 feet; and being on a lofty eminence, it is distinctly seen from the populous neighbourhood of Sheffield, often very beautifully defined in the morning sky, from which originated the misnomer, Lighten-in-the-Morning. The vicarage, valued in K.B. at £6. 13s. 4d., and in 1831 at £96, is in the gift of the Rev. L. V. Harcourt, as Prebendary of Laughton, in York Cathedral. The school and poor have several small benefactions. GILDINGSWELLS, 15 miles E. of Sheffield, has 91 souls. LETWELL, 10 miles E. by S. of Rotherham, has 129 inhabitants. THROAPHAM, 8 miles E.S.E. of Rotherham, is a chapelry, containing only 69 souls, 1080 acres.

MALTBY, on the Bawtry road, 12 miles E.N.E. of Sheffield, is a large and pleasant village, including within its parish the townships of Maltby and Hooton Levett, the latter of which is small, but the former contains 763 inhabitants, and 3319 acres of fertile land, including an extensive wood, near the east end of the village; the hamlet of CARR, 2 miles W.S.W. of Maltby; the village of STONE; the celebrated free-stone quarries, and the ruins of ROCHE ABBEY; and SANDBECK PARK, lying in the delightful vale of a small rivulet, from 2½ to 3½ miles S.S.W. of Tickhill, and S.E. of Maltby. Sandbeck is the seat of the Earl of Scarborough, who owns nearly all the soil, and is lord of the manor of Maltby. The Church (St. Bartholomew,) has a nave, chancel, and south aisle, with a tower and spire at the west end. It is a vicarage, valued in K.B. at £4. 13s. 4d., and in 1831, at £120, having been augmented, in 1792, with £200 of Q.A.B., and in 1814, with a parliamentary grant of £1400. The Earl of Scarborough is the patron, and the Rev. George Rolleston, M.A., incumbent. In the adjoining hamlet of Hooton Levett, is a large Methodist Chapel, built in 1832. The school and poor have several small benefactions. Hooton Levett has only 76 souls, and 470 acres.

CHESTERFIELD.

CHESTERFIELD, 12 miles S. of Sheffield, and 150 miles N. of London, is the capital of the Hundred of Scarsdale, in Derbyshire, and of the Parish and Deanery to which it gives name. It is an ancient market and borough town, having no representatives in Parliament, but celebrated for giving the title of Earl to the Stanhopes, for its singular Church spire, for its canal to the Trent, and for the mines of coal, lead, and iron, the Potteries of brown and stone ware, and the Iron Works in its neighbourhood. The town, which is very irregularly built, has a spacious Market place, and is pleasantly situated betwixt and at the conflux of two rivulets—the Hyper and the Rother, and at a short distance from the North Midland Railway. It has been much improved during the last ten years, and has now several lace manufactories. Its weekly market on Saturday, is well supplied with corn, cattle, and provisions of every description. It has seven annual fairs, viz., Jan. 27th, Feb. 28th, first Saturday in April, May 4th, July 15th, (for cattle, wool, &c,) Sept. 25th, and Nov. 25th, the last of which is a statute fair for biring servants, &c., and is toll free. The Races are held yearly on the Wednesday after Sept. 25th, upon the Moor, one mile north of the town. The Parish is very extensive, comprising 13,160 acres of land, divided into the eight Townships of Chesterfield, Brimington, Calow, Hasland, Newbold-with-Dunston, Temple Norman-ton, Tapton, and Walton, which collectively contained, in 1801, only a population of 7593 souls, who, in 1841, had increased to 11,231, of whom 6212 were in Chesterfield. The Roman road from Derby to York passed through Chesterfield, and it is supposed that there was anciently a fort or small castle on Windmill Hill, from which the town had its name in Saxon times.

In the Domesday Survey, "Chesterfield" is described as a hamlet of Newbold, which was an ancient demesne of the Crown, but it was soon afterwards given to William Peverel, whose son forfeited this and his other estates when he fled the kingdom, after poisoning Ranulphe, Earl of Chester, in 1153. King John, in 1203, granted Chesterfield and the whole of the Hundred of Scardsdale, to his favourite, William Briwere, and with the co-heiress of his son, this manor passed in marriage to Baldwin Wake; and it afterwards passed with his heiress to Edmund Plantagenet, Earl of Kent, whose descendants inherited it for several generations. The Earl of Salisbury held it in 1442, and the Earl of Shrewsbury in the reign of Elizabeth. It afterwards went by purchase to the Earl of Newcastle, and Sir Charles Cavendish, from whom it passed in the same manner as Bolsover to the late Duke of Portland, who exchanged it and the rest of Scardsdale, in 1792, with the late Duke of Devonshire, for some estates in Nottinghamshire.

In 1265, the Earl of Derby being in rebellion against Henry III., was defeated near this town by Henry, son of the King of Almain. The Earl fled for shelter to the church, where he concealed himself under some bags of wool, but by the treachery of a woman, his retreat was discovered, and he was conveyed in irons to Windsor, where he was confined three years, and on his liberation, being unable to pay a large fine which was levied on him, he was at length deprived both of his estate and earldom, which thus passed for ever from the ancient family of Ferrars. King John, in 1204, granted the town a charter for a weekly market and fair, for eight days, at the feast of the Holy Rood. He also made it a free borough, and gave the burgesses the same privileges as those of Nottingham. But Elizabeth, in 1524, granted them a new Charter of Incorporation. Charles II. confirmed these charters, and prescribed more definite laws for the Corporation. In the civil wars, the Earl of Newcastle defeated a body of Parliamentarians near Chesterfield. The Assizes were held here in March, 1637, on account of the plague being then prevalent at Derby. The Glorious Revolution of 1688 is said to have owed its origin to the meeting of a few friends to liberty and the Protestant religion, held on Whittington Moor, near Chesterfield, when King James II. was endeavouring to assume arbitrary power, and to re-establish Popery in this kingdom. A few noblemen, in the early part of 1688, met by appointment on this moor, for the express purpose of devising means for rescuing their country from the double slavery with which it was threatened, and amongst them were the Duke of Devonshire, the Earl of Danby, (afterwards Duke of Leeds,) Lord Delamere, and John Darcy, son of the Earl of Holderness. In consequence of a shower of rain, they adjourned to the village of Whittington, and finished their consultation at a public-house called the "Cock and Pynott," which acquired from this circumstance the name of Revolution House, and the small room in which these distinguished guests held their conference, the plotting parlour. This house is still standing, and the arm-chair in which the Duke of Devonshire sat forms part of its furniture. On Nov. 5th, 1788, the centenary of the Revolution was celebrated at Chesterfield and Whittington, with great magnificence. In 1770, an Act was obtained for a canal from Chesterfield to the Trent, and the work was finished in June, 1777, at the cost of £160,000. The length of this canal is 46 miles. The present railway communication between Sheffield and Chesterfield is a very circuitous route, via Rotherham, and the efforts of a spirited Company to obtain an Act for a direct railway between the two towns have hitherto been unsuccessful.

The Church is dedicated to St. Mary and All Saints, and is supposed to have been built, in the 13th century, on the site of another which had been erected in the 11th century. It is a large and handsome fabric, which has recently been re-pewed and thoroughly repaired. The spire, which, from its remarkable appearance, arrests the attention of every beholder, is 230 feet in height. It is built of wood, covered with lead, and no doubt was once perpendicular, but it has been so twisted and warped by the sun, that in 1818, it was found to lean out of the perpendicular of its base 6 feet 4 inches towards the south, and 4 feet 4 inches towards the west; but from the nature of its materials, it may keep its balance many years. By a grant from William Rufus, in 1100, the Dean of Lincoln is lord of the rectorial manor, appropriator of the great tithes, and patron of the vicarage, which is now enjoyed by the Rev. Thomas Hill, B.D., and was valued, in 1831, at £204. The Revs. J. B. Jebb, B.A., and G. Butt, M.A., are the curates. Mr. Samuel Cooper is clerk, and Mr. John Shenton sexton.

There were anciently two chantries and a guild in this church; and in the town were three chapels, viz., St. Thomas's, in Holywell street (now a barn and stable); St. Helen's, which stood on the site of the Grammar School; and St. James's, at Lordsmill bridge. At Old Spital, there was an ancient hospital for lepers, founded in the 10th of Richard I., but this, together with the endowed chapels and chantries, was swept away at the dissolution of the monasteries in the reign of Henry VIII. Trinity Church, or Chapel of Ease, is a neat structure, which was finished October, 1838, at the cost of £3700. The Rev. Alex. Poole, B.A., is the incumbent. Here are now seven places of worship belonging to Dissenters,—the Baptists, Wesleyans, Primitive Methodists, Unitarians, Independents, Quakers, and Sandemanians each having one; and on Brampton Moor, at a short distance from the town, is another, built in 1827, by the Wesleyan Methodists. On the same moor, a New Church, dedicated to St. Thomas, was built in 1832, at the cost of £3000. It is now in the incumbency of the Rev. Matson Vincent.

The Town Hall, under which is the borough gaol for debtors, is a large stone building, erected about the year 1790. Here are held the Summer Quarter Sessions, and a petty session on the 2nd and 4th Monday of every month, for the hundred of Scarsdale; but the petty sessions for the borough are held on every alternate Wednesday, at the Town Clerk's office. Assemblies are held at the Angel Inn; and the Theatre is opened for a few weeks in every year. The town also possesses a good subscription Library, a News Room, several public schools, a Mechanics' Institute (established in 1827), a Dispensary (established in 1800,) and an ample yearly income arising from charitable bequests. The Gas and Water Works were formed in 1826, under the powers of an Act of Parliament, and the undertaking has been so serviceable to the town, and so profitable to the proprietors, that shares have been sold at a premium of 45 per cent. The National School was established in 1814, the Infant School in 1829, and the School of Industry for girls in 1819. Victoria Blue Coat School is a neat building, in the Elizabethan style, erected by subscription in 1845, to commemorate her Majesty's visit to Chatsworth. Here is also a British School. The endowed schools are the Grammar School, founded in the reign of Elizabeth, rebuilt in 1710, and possessing property worth £100 per annum; and the Petty
School, established in 1696, and now having funds for teaching twenty poor children to read. The eleven almshouses, for as many poor women, are endowed with small yearly stipends from the bequests of Thomas Large, Geo. Taylor, and Sarah Rose. The Charities of Chesterfield are too numerous and complicated to be properly elucidated here, for we find they occupy no fewer than 66 folio pages of the 18th Volume of the Parliamentary Commissioners’ Reports, published in 1828, in which it is shewn that many of them have been misapplied, and improperly mixed up with the funds of the Corporation.

The Chesterfield Union Workhouse is a large brick building, in Newbold road, erected at the cost of £10,000. It was opened January 1st, 1840, and has accommodations for 300 paupers. This Union comprises the eight townships of Chesterfield parish, and those of Ashover, Great and Little Barlow, Bolsover, Brackenfield, Brampton, Clay lane, Coal Aston, Dronfield, Eckington, Heath, Holmesfield, Killamarsh, Morton, North Wingfield, Pilsley, Shirland-and-Higham, Staveley, Stryeton, Sutton-cum-Duckmanton, Tupton, Unstone, Wessington, Whittington, Wingerworth, and Woodthorpe. These 34 townships comprise an area of 83,732 acres, and had 39,219 inhabitants in 1841. Their expenditure on the poor for the quarter ending March 25th, 1845, was £2417. Mr. George Haslehurst is Union Clerk and Superintendent Registrar; Mr. J. H. Ramsden, Master of the Workhouse; and the Rev. A. Poole, B.A., Chaplain. Mr. S. Hollington is Registrar of Marriages, and Mr. George Hepworth, Deputy Superintendent Registrar.

Brampton Moor, the western suburb of Chesterfield, is in the parish of Brampton, and has several potteries, which have long been celebrated for the excellence of their brown and stone wares.

BEACCHIEF, noted for the remains of its ancient ABBEY, is an extra-parochial chapsley, in the vale of the Sheaf, 4 miles S. by W. of Sheffield. It has 74 souls, and 780 acres of land, and belongs to Benj. Broughton Pegge Burnell, Esq., who resides at the Hall, which stands near the remains of the abbey church, in which service is regularly performed by the incumbents of Holmesfield and Barlow. The other residents are, Joseph Hopkinson, scythe and sickle manir., Hutccliffe; Robt. Hibbert, Paul Hopkinson, and Jph. Crapper, shoemakers; Jph. Lomas, gardener; and Thomas Lees, John Marshall, and Geo. Sampson, farmers.

BRIGHTON is a pleasant village, on an activity above the Rother, near the North Midland Railway, 7 miles E.S.E. of Sheffield. Its parish comprises the two constablewicks of Bighton and Hackenthorp, and the hamlets of Sothal and Birley, and contains 1131 inhabitants and 3070 acres of land, mostly the property of Earl Manvers, the lord of the manor and patron of the Church, (St. Mary,) which is a vicarage, valued at £312, and enjoyed by the Hon. and VILLAGES IN DERBYSHIRE.

Rev. Thos. Erskine, M.A. The school has a small endowment for ten free scholars; and the poor have about £27 a year from several benefactions.

Birley and Birley Vale form a picturesque district, 4½ miles S.E. of Sheffield; and comprise a number of scattered houses, a large colliery, a Methodist Chapel, and Birley Spa, where a commodious bath-house was built about four years ago, by a company of proprietors. This building is at the bottom of the vale, and the grounds around it have been tastefully laid out and planted. The water, which supplies the cold, tepid, warm, and shower baths, has been several centuries in repute for its medicinal virtues, among the neighbouring inhabitants; and since the opening of the baths, it has effected several surprising cures, as will be seen by an advertisement at a subsequent page.

DERBYSHIRE is a large, ancient village, pleasantly situated in a romantic valley, on the Chesterfield road, 6 miles S. of Sheffield; watered by several springs, and participating largely in the edge tool and scythe and sickle manufactures; besides which, it has an iron foundry, chemical works, a corn mill, and a few spindle and flyer manufacturers; and in its vicinity are several coal mines. It had formerly a market, and it has still an annual cattle fair, on April 25th; a feast, on the nearest Sunday to Midsummer day; and a hiring for servants on Nov. 3rd.
Mrs. Cecil is lady of the manor, but the soil belongs to various owners. The parish comprises the hamlet of Little Barlow, and the townships of Dronfield, Coal Aston, Dore, Holmesfield, Totley, and Unstone, which together contain 13,380 acres, and 4583 inhabitants, of whom 1986 are in Dronfield. The Church (St. John the Baptist) is a handsome fabric, 132 feet long, and has a spire of the same height. It had formerly a chantry, which stood on the site of the Green Dragon inn, and was appropriated to Beauchief Abbey. The vicarage, valued at £224, is in the gift of the Crown, and incumbency of the Rev. Wm. Spencer. The Independents and Methodists have each a chapel here. The Free School, founded by Henry Fanshawe, in 1567, (with the letters patent of Queen Elizabeth,) is now free to all the poor of the parish, for instruction in every branch of an English education; and its lands and buildings produce £199 per annum, of which £130 is paid to the master, and £66 to the usher. The poor parishioners have about £50 a year, from eleven benefactions. A COURT OF QUESTS was established by Act of Parliament, in 1839, for the recovery of debts not exceeding £15, owing by persons residing in the parishes, &c. of Dronfield, Eckington, Norton, Barbro', Beauchief, Beighton, Clown, Elmton, Heeley, Killamarsh, and Whitwell—all in Derbyshire, except Heeley. The Court is held once in six weeks, alternately at the White Swan, Dronfield, and the White Hart, Eckington. Richard Wildman, Esq., is the judge; Mr. Wm. Wake, of Sheffield, clerk; and Richd. Rippon, of Mosboro', bailiff.

COALASTON is probably a corruption of Cold Aston, as it occupies the summit of a high and bleak hill, one mile E. of Dronfield. Thomas Kent, in 1693, left land now let for £16 a year, to be employed in apprenticing poor children.

DORE is a straggling village and chapelry, 5 miles S.S.W. of Sheffield, adjoining the high moors. The chapel was rebuilt in 1828. Earl Fitzwilliam is the patron, and the Rev. Rd. Martin, B.A., is the incumbent; but the Duke of Devonshire is lord of the manor. The school, which was built on the site of the old chapel, in 1828, is endowed with £30 a year, for the instruction of thirty free scholars. The rest of the rents of the school land is given to the poor, who have also £3. 10s. yearly from other bequests.

HOLMESFIELD is a hamlet and chapelry, on an eminence, 74 miles S. by W. of Sheffield. The chapel was rebuilt in 1826, on the site of the old one, and is in the patronage of trustees. The Duke of Rutland is lord of the manor, and built a school here in 1831; and the master has £17. 19s. 10jd. per annum, from land left in 1719, by Robt. Mower; and £5. 8s. 5d. from the "Penny Acres," for which he teaches 22 free scholars. The curate has a house and sixty acres of land; and the poor have £5. 10s. yearly from the "Penny Acres."

TOTLEY is a scattered village, in the chapelry of Dore, pleasantly situated on the Bakewell road, 6 miles S.S.W. of Sheffield. The Infant School was built in 1827, at the cost of D'Ewes Coke, Esq., of Totley Hall, and has £6 a year, partly from land allotted at an enclosure in 1821. The soil belongs to various owners, and some of the moor allotments were added to the different farms in 1840.

UNSTONE is a hamlet, one mile S.E. of Dronfield, noted for its excellent coal. The poor have £3 yearly from the bequest of Thos. Curty, in 1701, and now secured on land at Norton, belonging to W. J. Bagshawe, Esq.

have chapels in the village. The Court of Requests noticed at page 309, is held alternately at Eckington and Dronfield. Petty Sessions are held at the White Hart, on the fourth Thursday of every month. A market for butter, eggs, &c., is held here every Friday; and in 1842, two cattle fairs were established, to be held on the third Friday in April and October. Eckington Quarter of the parish had 1169 souls in 1841.

Moshbrough, a large village, on a declivity, 6½ miles S.E. of Sheffield, has a Wesleyan and also a Primitive Methodist chapel. The School was endowed in 1850, by Joseph Stones, with land now worth £25 a year, for which, and a good house and garden, the master teaches 16 free scholars. This Quarter of Eckington parish has 1044 souls.

Renishaw quarter comprises 721 souls; the ancient hall and extensive park of Sir George Sitwell, Bart.; the extensive ironworks of Appleby and Co.; and the hamlet of Spink-Hill, where a college and handsome Catholic Church have recently been founded, in lieu of the ancient chapel, 6½ miles S.E. by E. Sheffield. Troway is a small village, and has within its constablevick, 1467 souls, several hamlets, and the village of Ridgeway, 6 miles S.E. by S. of Sheffield, where a neat Church was built in 1839-40, at the cost of £2000, raised by subscription, except £500, given by the Incorporated Society for building and enlarging churches, and £350 by the Diocesan Society. In 1842 the living was made a perpetual curacy, in the gift of the Rector, and incumbency of the Rev. A. C. Brownehead, whose yearly stipend, £300, is paid out of the tithes of the parish. His district comprises Troway Quarter.

Its ancient name was Hereseige; and its church, dedicated to St. Michael, was formerly in the appropriation of Launda Abbey, in Leicestershire. The Duke of Devonshire is lord of the manor, and patron of the vicarage, now valued at £126. Tradition says Little John, the famed gigantic companion of Robin Hood, 'lies buried in the church-yard, with one stone at his head, and another at his feet,' and that his bow was hanging up in the church in 1652. The school has an endowment of £10 per annum, and the benefactions to the poor produce about £18 a year. On the hills, 2 miles from Hathersage, is Longshaw, the Duke of Rutland's shooting box.
Marked 1, are at Booths; 2, near Lead mill Bar; 3, Nether Hirst; 4, Outseats; and the rest in Hathersage.

NORTON is a pleasant village, 4 miles S. of Sheffield, seated on the highest point, and nearly in the centre of its fertile parish, which occupies an undulated and well-wooded conical surface of 4630 acres, bounded on the west by the Sheaf, on the north by Heeley, on the south by Dronfield, and on the east by Trayor and Ridgeway; and containing the hamlets enumerated below; and the five Constablewicks of Norton, Hemsworth, Greenhill, Bradway, and Norton-Lees with Woodseats, which contain 1908 inhabitants, many of whom are employed in the manufacture of sickles, sickles, and reaping hooks, for which here are several forges and grinding wheels. Here was born the late Sir Francis Chats- trey, the celebrated London statute, to whose memory there is a handsome monument in the Church, executed by himself. The heiress of Stephen Offley, Esq., carried the manor in marriage to Samuel Shore, Esq., but James Yates, Esq., now occupies Norton Hall, near which is Norton House, a large ancient mansion, occupied by T. B. Holy, Esq.; and at a short distance to the south, is The Oaks, the delight-ful seat of W. J. Bagshawe, Esq., magistratate. The Church (St. James,) was given by Ralph, lord of Alfreton, Norton, and Marham to the abbey which he founded at Beauchief. The vicarage is now enjoyed by the Rev. H. H. Pearson, M.A., whose father purchased the advowson, about 30 years ago, of Cavendish Neville, Esq., who at the same time sold the rectorial tithes to S. Shore, Esq., and the other landowners. Near Hill Top is an Independent Chapel. The Parish School, at Maugherhay, was endowed by Leonard Gill, in 1654, and other donors, with land, buildings, &c., which now produce £67. 12s. 8d. per annum. In 1676, Nicholas Stones left a house, and 30a. of land, now let for £25 a year, and directed £5 to be paid to the vicar, £5 to the schoolmaster, and the residue to be given in apprentice fees with poor children. In 1724, Wm. Scriven left the interest of £140 to apprentice poor children, and clothes one poor man and woman. W. J. Bagshawe, Esq., is trustee of the above, and Offley Shore, Esq., of the four following Charities, belonging to the poor of this parish, viz.—£27 10s. yearly, from land, &c., left by John Storie, in 1774; £20 yearly, from land left by John Wingfield, in 1781; the interest of £100, by Richd. Rose, in 1774; and the interest of £200, by Robert Newton, in 1784. The Poor's land, including Bocking-fields, is let for £12 a year, and applied with the poor rates. In 1811, Isaac Shepherd left the interest of £100 to the poor of Greenhill and Bradway. At Hems- worth, there is good accommodation at the Bagshawe Arms, where, also, the Magistrates' meetings are held. At Norton Inn are held the monthly meetings of the Norton Farmers' Club, established in 1843, and now having nearly 90 members: W. J. Bagshawe, Esq., is president; Mr. James Jenkin, treasurer; Mr. Geo. Rogers, secretary; and Mr. R. Booker, jun., librarian.

NORTON Lees and Woodseats division includes: Bole Hill, Healey Mill, Little London, Norton Hammer, Smithy Wood, Moscar, and Mearsbrook, extending from 2 to 3 miles S. of Sheffield; bounded on the W. by the Sheaf, and having many pleasant villas. Green- hill, Hemsworth, and Bradway, are on the Calver turnpike, from 4 to 5 miles S. by W. of Sheffield. A petty session is held on the second Thursday of every month, at the Bagshawe Arms in Hemsworth, before W. J. Bagshawe, Esq., Sir George Sitwell, H. Bowden, Esq., and B. B. P. Burnell, Esq. Maugherhay, vulgarly called Magathy, is a pleasant hamlet, within a short distance S. of Norton.

In the following DIRECTORY of NORTON PARISH, those marked 1, reside at Back Moor; 2, Brad- way; 3, Carfield; 4, Four-Lane- ends; 5, Greenhill; 6, Hemsworth; 7, Holmthor; 8, Norton Lees; 9, Lightwood; 10, Little Norton; 11, Maugherhay; 12, Meadowhead; 13, Norton Hammer; 14, Oak Mills; 15, Woodseats; and 16, in Norton.

MRS. EYRE'S BOTANICAL MEDICINES, 25, BANK-STREET, SHEFFIELD.

MRS. EYRE, grateful for past favours conferred on her by a discerning Public, for a long series of years, takes this opportunity to return her sincere thanks for the very liberal encouragement she has met with, and hopes to merit a continuance of the same.

Mrs. Eyre begs to state, at the same time, that as she has been frequently importuned by her patients to give greater publicity to her invaluable Worm Medicines, for the benefit of the afflicted, she has taken this opportunity of obliging them, and gives the following symptoms:—

There are three species of Worms, namely:—Tinea, or Tape Worm; Toratious, or Round Worm; and the Ascarides, or Maw Worm. The Tape Worm chiefly occupies the whole intestine, and the head lays between the stomach and the liver, which makes it difficult to bring away; but she has the pleasure to announce, that her Medicines seldom fail in bringing away the head of this monstrous Worm. It causes fevers, epileptic fits, consumption, shortness of breath, loathing of food, wasting and pining away of the body, continued thirst, swollen bellies, white thick urine, a nauseous breath, often vomiting, spitting blood, and sometimes voiding a few joints at a time. This is the most dangerous of the whole tribe. The Toratious causes paleness, hollowness in the eyes, gnawing pains of the stomach, especially in the morning, being desirous of fresh nourishment; these vermin have legs and joints, and some have forked joints, &c. Maw Worms, or small, round, white Worms, which occupy the lower intestine, occasion qualms, dryness, pain in the head, grating of the teeth, unquiet sleep, faintness, fits, &c.

Mrs. E.'s Anti-Scorbutic Drops, sold at 2s.6d. per single bottle, and 4s.6d. per double quantity, will be found efficacious in all Scorbutoic and Scrofula complaints. Mrs. E.'s Botanical Female & Family Pills, sold at 1s. per box, and 1s.9d. the double box. Mrs. E. will give reference, on application, to a great number of persons who have been cured, during the past year by her invaluable Medicines. The celebrated Rem Pill, for the cure of the Venereal Disease, in all its stages, at 1s.6d. per box, or 2s.9d. the double box, prepared by B. Eyre.

CELEBRATED BALISAMIC LOTION

Has been successfully applied to this distressing Disease for a number of Years, and he can fearlessly assert that in no instance where it has been properly applied, has it failed of producing the most salutary effects, and permanent Cures in the greater proportion of Cases, in the short space of two or three days from the first application: in fact, there are instances which can be referred to, of parties suffering from birth with this painful Deformity, who have been perfectly Cured by the use of one Bottle of this Lotion, after having had recourse to all the approved remedies commonly adopted in such cases. Testimonials, too numerous for the space of an Advertisement of this description, could be given of the efficacy of this Lotion to individuals, who, after having expended pounds on other Lotions, Ointments, &c., have been Cured by the use of this Lotion, in so incredibly short space of time, that, from fear of being charged with egotism, the Publisher hopes that those suffering, will enquire of others who have witnessed its application; and it may also be justly said of this Lotion, that it not only removes the blemish, but strengthens and invigorates the Sight.

This Article, being a New Composition, possesses double Washing power and durability over all other kinds of Soap; it washes with great ease, and lathers freely in either hard, soft, mineral spring, or sea water.

In Washing, NO SODA MUST BE USED, as the Soap possesses all the softening properties within itself. Painters, Dyers, Colliers, Mechanics, and others who have hitherto found it difficult to remove dirt, grease, paint, or stains from their clothes and persons, will find it of paramount advantage.

The absence of all ingredients which tend to destroy the colour of Printed Goods, renders this Soap highly valuable; it brightens good fast colours; and the finest Silks and Lace may be washed with it, without the slightest fear of their texture being injured.

For general Household purposes, such as scouring floors, cleaning painted rooms, walls, and furniture, it only need be tried to be appreciated.

To Manufacturers, Dyers, and Scourers of Flannels, Woollens, Worsted, &c., it offers peculiar advantages; and the Washerwoman will find that by using this Soap, the original colour of Flannel is preserved, which arises chiefly from her not having to soften the water with Soda, or other deleterious ingredients.

Ordinary Soaps require rain-water, but this does not. And who would not prefer the crystal stream to the sooty water from the house top? The luxury of Washing in clear spring water, without exertion, is of itself sufficient to induce any one to use this Soap. To SAILORS it will be invaluable, as the HYPER-OXY-KALI is the only Soap yet produced which washes properly in sea water.

The Article may be known by its extraordinary Washing properties, and by its leaving the skin delicately white and soft: it may likewise be distinguished by the Names—

"DODDS AND LAYTON,"

BEING STAMPED ON EVERY BAR.—NONE OTHER IS GENUINE.

This Cemetery has heretofore been held under a Deed of Settlement, enrolled in Chancery; but the Company are applying to the Legislature for an Act of Incorporation, by which means a large plot of land will be added to the present Cemetery, and consecrated.

The Directors have made arrangements, that an Interment may take place in a private Grave, upon payment of the charge for burial, allowing one year for the purchase of the Grave, by payment in two instalments. The Grave will be considered the property of the family during that year, and will become inalienably theirs upon the payment of the purchase money in the appointed time.

The charge for burying in a private Grave, in one portion of the Cemetery, has been reduced to Seven Shillings, including all expenses:

Grave and Vault Stones are furnished by the Directors at Moderate Charges.

Any further particulars may be known on application at the Cemetery, where orders may be received every day of the week, (Sunday excepted) at the Registrar's Office; or by the Sexton; or at Mr. J. Innocent's, Campo Lane, and Mr. B. Skidmore's, New Haymarket.
Mr. G., grateful for the very extensive Patronage he has always received, intimates that he still continues to supply the Loss of Teeth in every variety, without extracting the stumps, or giving any pain.

Mr. G.’s unrivalled method of fixing, combined with the elegance of the Teeth, which never change colour or decay, renders it impossible for the closest observer to detect them from the natural ones.

Decayed Teeth stopped and rendered useful. Teeth Scaled; Tooth Powders, &c. &c.

H. W. GARNETT,
SURGEON AND MECHANICAL DENTIST,
FERNLEY-PLACE, GLOSSOP-ROAD, SHEFFIELD,

Respectfully announces to his Friends and the Public generally, that having removed to the above commodious residence, he is now prepared to supply the Loss of Teeth, from one to a complete set, on an entirely new method, based upon true philosophical principles, which, being aided by that most powerful and important agent—Galvanic Electricity, enables him, by its unerring effects, to produce Models of the Gums & Gold Palates for the foundations of Artificial Teeth, superior to any other principle hitherto adopted by the Dental Faculty.

H. W. G. has submitted the above principle to upwards of 20 of the first Dentists in London, who have expressed their high approval of its merits; he therefore feels confident that those individuals who may be kind enough to place themselves under his care, will meet with every satisfaction, assuring them that the Teeth supplied by him may be worn with the greatest ease, and are capable of restoring perfect articulation and mastication.

H.W.G. also supplies Teeth upon every other approved construction, particularly those carved from the tusk of the Hippopotamus, fitted without springs, or ligatures, and retained in their places by capillary attraction. A number of beautiful specimens may be seen, on application at his residence as above, where may be had the SYAMESE ELIXIR,—being the best cure for the Tooth-Ache, and pain in the Gums, yet discovered. Also, his Tooth Powders, which are perfect remedies for the various complaints incident to the Teeth & Gums.

Extracting & Sealing performed with the greatest care and attention. Decayed Teeth stopped with gold, metallic, or mineral preparations, according to the nature of the case, with wonderful effect.

MILLS AND OTHER SPECIAL INSURANCES AT RATES PROPORTIONED TO THE ESTIMATED RISK.

The Assured in this Office are allowed a present Discount of Five per Cent. on the Amount of all their Premiums of Fire Insurance.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The object of first importance in Life Insurance is ultimate Security for the Assured, which is most amply provided for by this Company in its large subscribed Capital; and in order to meet the views of different individuals, Insurers for the whole of Life have the option of two different Rates of Premium. By Insuring according to one of these Rates, they become entitled to a Bonus every Seven Years, to the extent of Three-fifths of the Profits of the Life Department. While, for those Persons whose object is to Insure a fixed sum at the lowest possible cost, a reduced Scale of Premiums has been prepared.

THIRD SEPTENNAL DECLARATION OF BONDS.

A Bonus of Twenty per Cent. has been declared on the Premiums paid on Bonus Policies during the Seven Years ending December 31st, 1844. This Bonus is applied either by way of addition to the Sum Insured, or in reduction of the future Annual Premiums, according to the option of the Assured. When added to the Sum Insured, it amounts on an average of the different ages to Thirty-four per Cent. on the Premiums paid.

The following Extract from the Company’s Tables shows the Annual Premium required for Insuring the Sum of £100 upon the Life of a healthy Person, for the following Ages and Periods:

REID & Co.'s MILD AND BROWN STOUT LONDON PORTER,
in Casks of 18 Gallons, and in Bottles, quarts, 6s. per doz.; pints, 3s. 6d., do. PALE ALE, as prepared for India, in Casks of 18 Gallons, 1s. 9d. per gal.; in Bottles, 6s. 6d. per doz.; and in pints, 3s. 6d. per doz.

This particular kind of Ale differs greatly from the common Malt Liquors. It is more perfectly fermented, and approaches nearly the character of a dry Wine; it has the light body of a Wine, combined with the fragrance and subdued bitter of the most delicate Hop. That it is wholesome in an eminent degree, is proved by its being drunk as the common beverage in India, where, from the nature of the climate, nothing which is not friendly to health can be used as an article of diet by Europeans. Many of the Faculty also prescribe this Ale to invalids. Dr. Proust, in his work on Diet, &c., expressly recommends it to weakly persons, on account of its dryness, its mild Tonic properties, and because it is not liable to turn ascensive on the stomach, as other Malt Liquors are:

Every Article enumerated sold in the smallest quantity, on the above Terms, of precisely the same quality and strength, as if bought in the largest parcels,—J. S. being anxious to supply the small Consumers as well as the largest.

IMPORTER OF CHAMPAGNE VINEGAR.
Nothing brings on Nervous Debility, premature Old Age, and Shortens Human Life, more than Diseases of the Chest.

Is one of the most important and useful Modern Discoveries for Coughs, Asthma, Hoarseness, Influenza, Grinders' Asthma, Croup, Hooping Cough, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, Spinal and Rheumatic Affections of the Joints, Local Pains, and all Diseases of the Chest.

As a remedy for Diseases of the Chest, it unquestionably excels every other application, as the immense Sale sufficiently demonstrates. It operates by warming and stimulating the lungs, promoting a regular circulation of the blood, loosens the congested mucus, consequently, causing free expectoration and easy breathing, without the unpleasant necessity of taking inward remedies. One of the Plasters applied to the Pit of the Stomach, for pain arising from Indigestion; or to the Chest in Asthma, incipient Inflammation of the Lungs, arising from repeated colds, or lying in a damp bed; in Lumbago, Spinal, and Rheumatic Affections of the Joints; Grinders' Asthma, and Diseases of the Chest, in general invariably relieves in a short time, and frequently eradicates all symptoms of disease. They have an extraordinary effect in giving elasticity to the Lungs, & improving the Tone of the Voice. They are particularly recommended to be worn during the Winter months, by persons susceptible of irritation in the lungs, from inhaling an impure and damp atmosphere, and Children subject to sudden attacks of the Croup, &c. The component parts of these Plasters are principally British Herbs, and the Gums and Balsams of the Oriental World, where—
